Sailing

Through Huntington High

We wish to dedicate our Modulus of 1953 to you—the people who work together, play together, and live together at Huntington High. And now, by means of the Modulus, we would like to take you on a voyage through H.H.S.

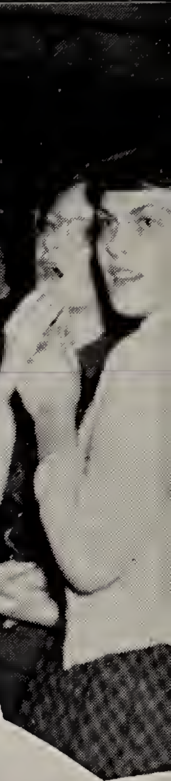
Ground Breaking Ceremonies were held on October 1, 1952

Ground-breaking ceremonies with the entire student body participating were held on October the first, 1952. The band played while the students and faculty assembled for the program. Mr. Gordon, dean of boys, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the members of the school board, Mr. Stephan, Mr. Johnson, and the class presidents. After the invocation and a speech by Mr. Stephan and Mr. Johnson, the four class presidents dug the first shovelful of dirt for the new addition. The presidents are Dick Morris, Senior; Steve Moon, Junior; Bob Paulen, Sophomore; and Jerry Dolby, Freshman.

Our new addition will contain a cafeteria, new facilities for the band and radio, added classrooms, etc. It will certainly add to the already outstanding facilities of H. H. S.



It Happens Every Year

Like it or not, once a semester we must rent books - - - Oops, where is that ball? - - - - Shore leave at the Y - - - - One, two, three, four, let's get in shape now, fellows - - - Looks bad for Peru - - - - Left, right, watch those lines . . . . Let's see, do I have your name card? - - - - What strange creatures we find roaming our halls - - - - The Stars and Stripes will soon be floating in the breeze.

Variety is the Spice of Life

Familiar Scenes

Clockwise — Foreign language students go Christmas caroling, the melody is usually distinguishable, but seldom the words . . . as long as we have coeducation we will have couples . . . now we gaze out the window instead of into each others eyes . . . sometimes it rains . . . '52 was election year, obviously?

Our Administration and Faculty are constantly trying to promote the best in education for the students of Huntington High. The teachers counsel and advise us, trying to make our four-year voyage worthwhile. Now it is up to us to take advantage of our opportunities and profit from this privilege.

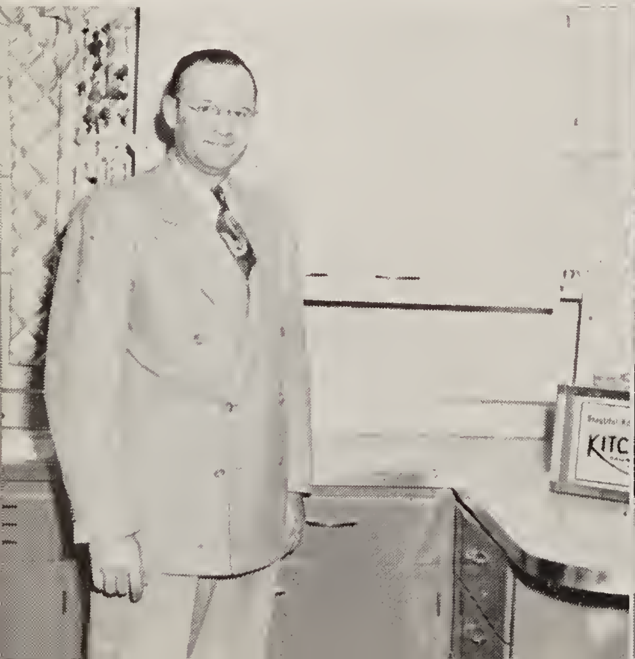
MR. BURTON STEPHAN

Mr. Stephan is in his twelfth year as superintendent, having previously served five years as H.H.S. principal. He is a graduate of Indiana University and is the holder of an M.A. degree. His hobbies are watching any kind of athletic event and reminiscing about the 1916 H.H.S. basketball team on which he played. Ah, yes, those were the days.

School Board charts course for entire fleet

The School Board members, appointed for a term of three years by the City Council, supervise the finances and the hiring of teachers in our school system. They have done a very efficient job.

Mr. Dale H. Updike



Mrs. Ruth M. Dunkin

Mr. Lawrence Leyman

MR. HAROLD JOHNSON

Our principal, Mr. Johnson, is a graduate of Indiana University, holding an A.B. and a Master's Degree. In addition to keeping the school running smoothly and overseeing every phase of school life, he has a hobby of fishing and enjoys all sports.

Skipper Johnson and aides run our scholar "ship"

Thanks to the secretaries, the business of the office is run efficiently and without confusion. In addition to answering the students' innumerable questions, they do the regular office work very capably.

Miss Lou Ann Parker

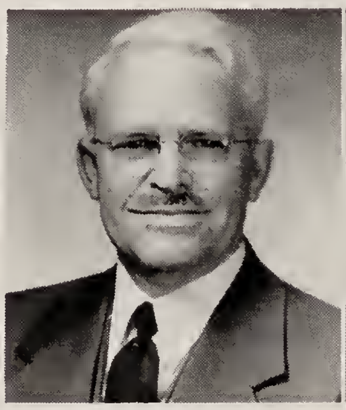
Faculty fills holds with treasures of knowledge

Mr. Hugh Brown—"If everyone at this table would cooperate . . ."

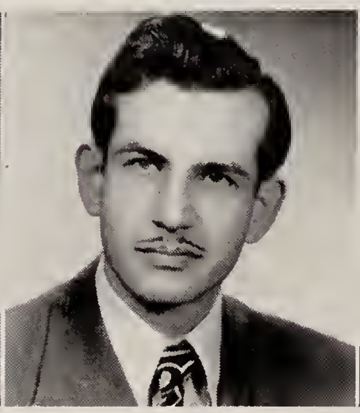
Mr. Edward Burke—"If you don't get quiet, I'll turn off the Sound System!"

Mr. Lowell Buzzard—"That reminds me of the time . . ."

Miss Hazel Cage —"He'd make a wonderful man for you, girls."



Mr. M. McCabe Day—"Let's get busy."



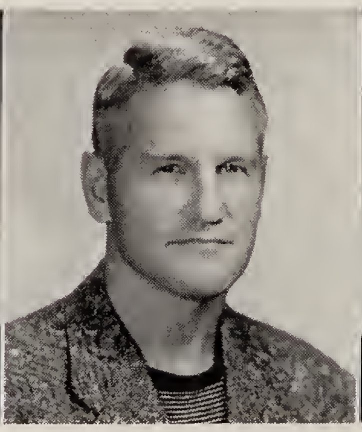
Mr. Robert Diffenbaugh—"Now listen, you birds."

Miss Mabel Ellis —"Where are the erasers?"

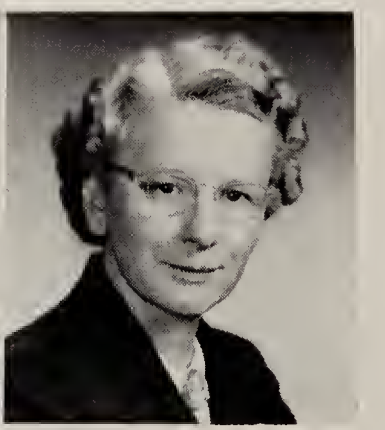
Mr. Bruce Gerdes —"Do I have to draw a picture?"

Mr. Lester Gordon—"Thinking makes it so."

Mrs. Bernice Hillegas — "Get out and sell!"



Mr. Glenn Hummer—"I believe the bell has rung."



Miss Alice Kline —"Now, let's don't let that organization drop."

Instill worthwhile attitudes and characteristics to crew.

Miss Emma Kline — "You kids don't really mean to be bad."

Miss Ruth Luther — "Count up your points."

Mr. J. E. Michael — "How about a ticket?"

Mr. Oscar Naab—"Tomorrow we'll have a little review."

Miss Verna Oyer — "Oh no, not you again."

Mrs. Beatrice Patterson—"Let's get organized."

Mrs. Berneice Poehler —"We were just wondering how you are feeling."

Mrs. Marie Porter — "We'll work together."

Miss Carolyn Reynolds—"Now let me tell you . . ."

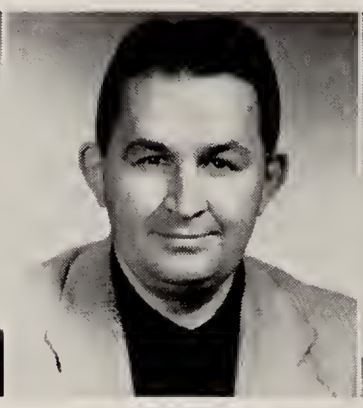
Mrs. Opal Ritchie — "Now let's read in unison."

Mrs. Elizabeth Sayle — "What's wrong with you today?"

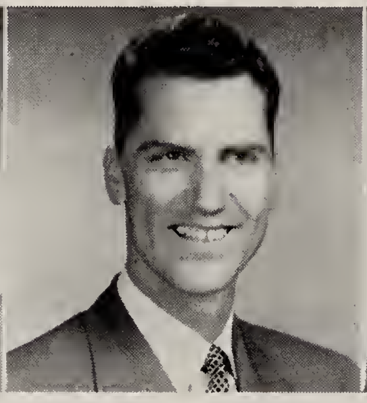
Miss Mary Sees—We'll type to music tomorrow."

Plot course for smooth sailing in future.

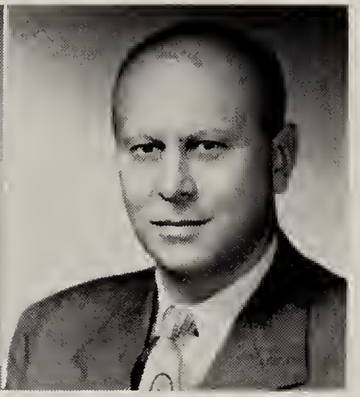
Mr. Clodye Slater — "You people just don't appreciate fine music."



Mr. Dale Ware—"We'll have a little fun on paper, now."

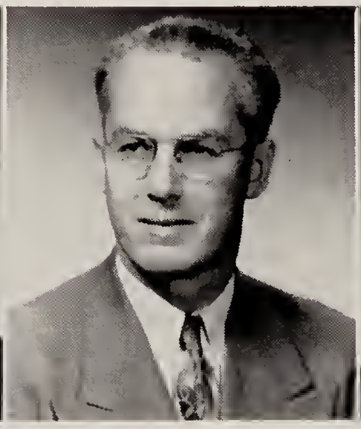


Mr. Lou Watson — "Hustle, hustle, hustle!"

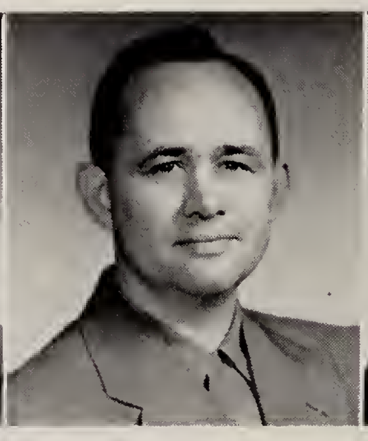


Mr. Delmar Weesner —". . . and so forth."

Miss Florence Weiford —"Now, boys!"



Mr. Leslie Wilbern— "You've got to meet the deadline."



Mr. Bill Williams — "Let's run it once more."

Miss Jennie B. Wilson —"Let's see what the author says."

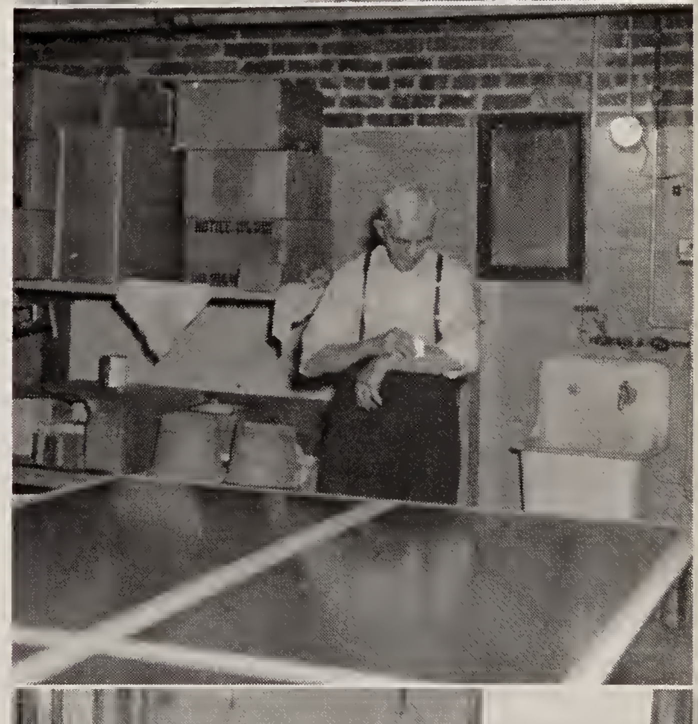
Miss Geraldine Zahn —"We let anything in here."

Thanks to these helpful advisors, we've been able to straighten out our four-year plans and take the subjects we'll need in the future. The advisers are Mr. Gerdes, Miss Emma Kline, Mrs. Hillegas, and Mr. Burke.

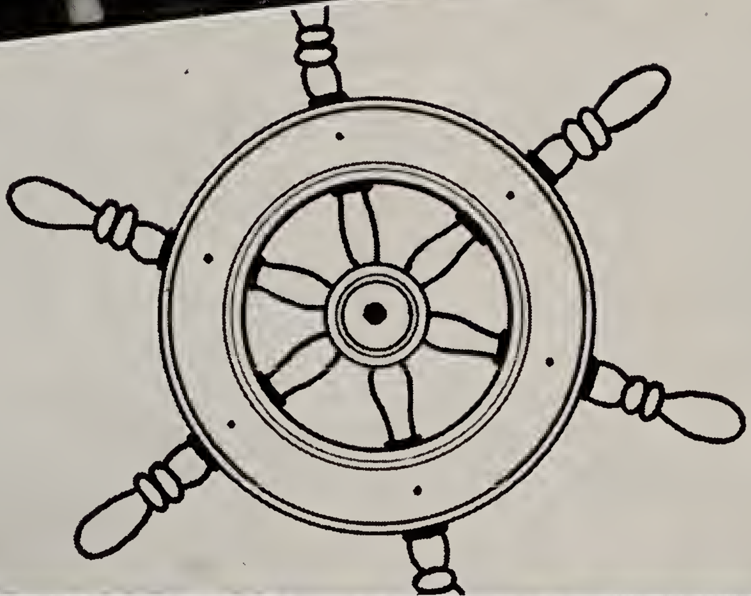
Custodians

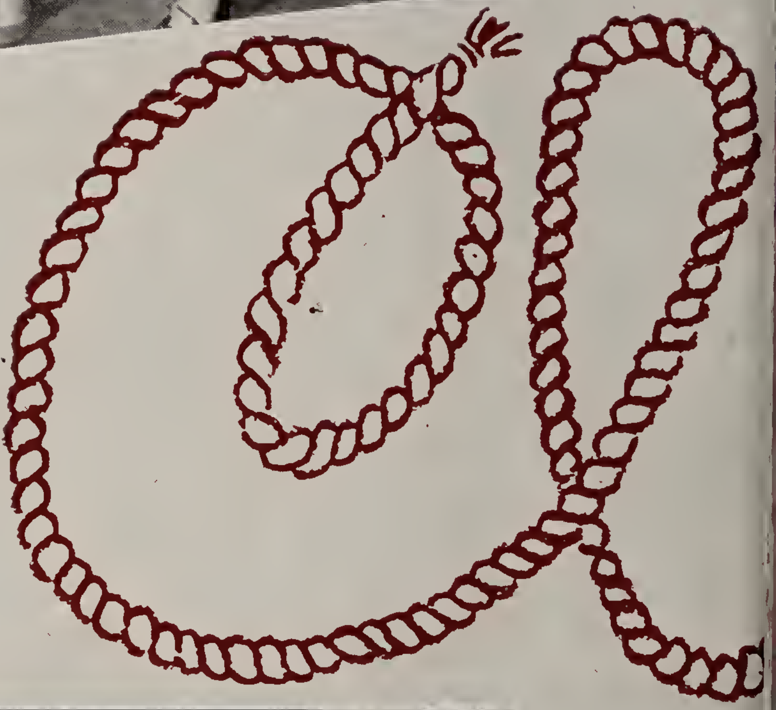
keep things shipshape.

Here they are, those friendly fellows with the big grins who never lose their patience too much even when ink is spilled all over the floor or a mirror is shattered. Their work gives our school the rating of "one of the best kept schools" in the State. They make school a pleasant and clean place in which to study and play. Whom is it we yell for when we cannot find something? You guessed it.



Thanks a lot, Mr. Pete Helm, Mr. Denis Newell, Mr. Fred Cussen, and Mr. Emery Telfer for keeping the building ship-shape. We really appreciate it. Oh, darn, I broke my ink bottle again. Hey, somebody, help me!





As we graduate, we glance back to those carefree, bewildering Freshman days, the thrill of getting our class rings in our Sophomore year, the work and fun of amassing stacks of money during our Junior year, and the numerous achievements and swell times of our Senior year.

As we go our separate ways, we will remember all the wonderful friends and fellow companions we had on our cruise. It's the people who make the school, and we certainly have a swell "crew."

Seniors positive Class of '53 best ever.

Miss Jennie B. Wilson and Mr. Robert Diffenbaugh

Senior Sponsors

The sponsors of the Class of 1953, Miss Jennie B. Wilson and Mr. Robert Diffenbaugh better known to the seniors as Jennie B. and Diffie, have been the best ever. They have guided the 1953 ship of Vikings to the highest attainments. We might add here that the class of 1953 earned more money in their Junior year than any other class before them.

Dick Morris, Delene Smith, Carol Chalmers, Rex Dolby

Senior Officers

In the fall of this school year the seniors of H.H.S. elected president Richard Morris to his third term as President. His capable assistants were Rex Dolby, Vice-Pres.; Carol Chalmers, Sec'y; and Delene Smith, Treas. This was Rex's first; Carol's second, and Delene's third term. They made one of the best executive committees the ship of 1953 has had.

Senior Class

The passengers on the Viking Ship 1953 have become great friends during the four wonderful years spent at H.H.S. We are looking forward to commencing into our future works and lives, yet we are sad when we think that commencement will be the last time the members of the ship of 1953 will sit together, for once we have left, each will go along his separate way perhaps never to return.

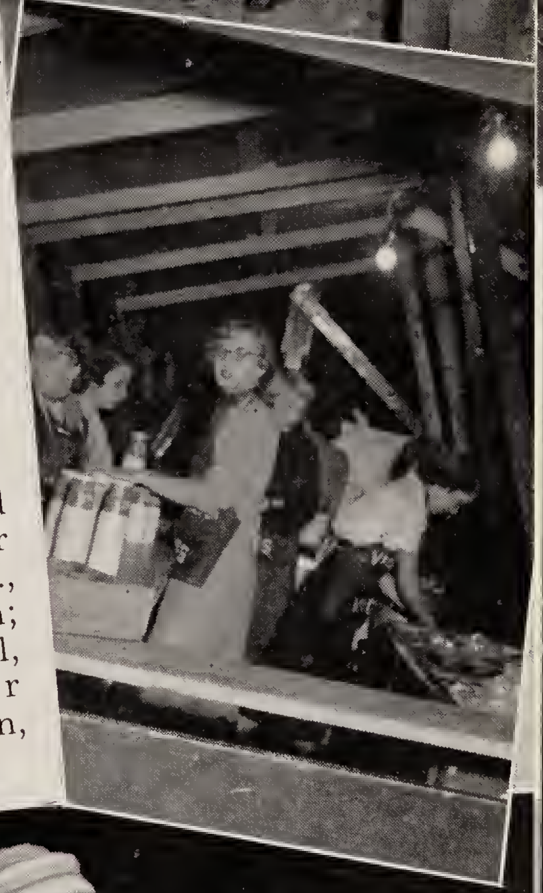
Junior Class

The illustrious juniors have made their "millions" under the able guidance of their sponsors Mrs. Hillegas and Mr. Burke. They have added a popcorn warmer and new plumbing to the concession stand. The hard working Viking Ship of 54 elected as their leaders this year Stephen Moon, Pres., George Riseborough; Vice-Pres., Kay Guhl, Sec'y, and Eleanor "Scrooge" Carlson, Treas.



Sophomores

During our sophomore year we changed our green cords to blue and attained a somewhat sophisticated air. Our class rings were simply beautiful and the crew had a party that was a huge success. Our sponsor was Miss Zahn and our elected officers were Bob Paulen, president; Barbara Petrucelle, vice-president; Bernadine Burkholder, secretary; Julie Ware, treasurer.

Although we of the Viking ship of 1956 have been the "greenies" during this past year, we are proud to have become a part of H.H.S. Our party was our first chance at working together as a class, and the executive committee did a swell job of planning it. Our sponsor was Mr. Gordon, president, Jerry Dolby; vice-president, Saralee Allen; secretary, Dorothy Wendel; treasurer, Nancy Weesner.

Act

We all share in the privileges and benefits of the many and varied activities provided aboard ship. By participating we may gain poise, learn pleasing personal traits, develop ability to work with others, train for leadership, start new hobbies, or make further advancement in a chosen field.

The club activities, exciting dances, super plays, musical entertainments, best-ever Revue, radio broadcasts, and the ship's newspaper remain as bright spots on our voyage.

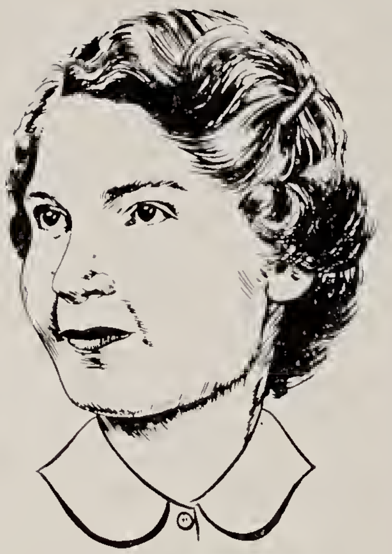
Modulus Staff gives you



Ann Paulen

Under the leadership of our editor, Ann Paulen, the staff kept busy and at work on the Modulus. She worked hard, and we say congratulations to her for a swell job.

Mr. Wilbern

Willie—our friend and adviser. In case you're wondering, we're speaking of Mr. Leslie Wilbern, our faculty adviser. Thanks to him, the staff kept busy and on the right track to turn out this Modulus. Without his being right there all the time with his help and ready grin, it would have been hopeless even thinking about a Modulus. All we can say is, "Thanks a lot, Willie."

a record of this year's cruise.

"Ann, Ann! Where did she go? I need some help." "Bert, do you have those pictures developed yet?" "Well, Marcus didn't get those pictures taken today." "Oh, oh, Rex just had a brainstorm on his sports write-up." "Dode, are you ever going to get those activity write-ups in?" "Janet, I've got a little work for you." "Oh, Sheila, the funniest thing happened today that you can put in the diary." "How much advertisement do we have, Nick?" "Here's some copies to type, Pat." "Say, Fanchon, there's some work for you to do." "Where's that design, Annie B.?" "Sondra, where are those pictures you filed? I lost the negatives." "Georgie, bring the paste over here." "Who took the dummy home last night? I need it!" "Willie!!"

These are a few of the sounds you may have heard as you went past 310 during sixth period. Don't be alarmed. It was only the Modulus Staff, hard at work. We may have complained a little; but it was a lot of fun.

Miss Modulus

tops the records in sales.

A hush fell over the auditorium as the candidates for Miss Modulus came down the aisles with their escorts. It was an evening to be remembered especially for Miss Shirley Souders as she was proclaimed Miss Modulus of 1953 by Bob Butler, master of ceremonies. Rex Dolby escorted our top ticket seller. We say thanks a lot to Shirley and the four other candidates for selling enough tickets to bring in a packed house every night of the Revue. It was a swell job.

Miss Modulus

When our photographer visited Miss Shirley Souders, he found that she had many other talents and hobbies besides that of super-salesmanship. We see that she is an excellent cook, has a hobby of keeping a picture scrapbook, is a talented musician, likes to read books, and makes an attractive lady when dressed for a party. We are proud to name her Miss Modulus of 1953.

Revue of 1953 plays to a full house on three nights.

One of the events which we're proudest of this year was the Modulus Revue of '53. Thanks to the ticket-selling ability of the "Miss Modulus" nominees—Carolyn Kimmel, Nancy Kramer, Shirley Souders, Carol Wood, and Sharon Young—plus the talent of the cast, the Revue was a big success. The orchestra started off with a bang playing

"Pennsylvania 6-5000" followed later in the show by "Everything I Have Is Yours," and "Trying." The Cowgirls Dance Chorus danced to cowboy music, and the Tango Chorus did justice to "Takes Two to Tango" and others. The many clever skits were "Brothers of the Broadcast," "Priscilla's Plight," "Behind the Scenes," "How to Get a Male," and a monologue entitled "Leap Year Leap" by Suzanne Schilling. The solos were competently done by Carol Schnitz, June Petrie, Norma Kidd, Carolyn Collins, Carol Steele, and John Smith. The Quartet composed of Carol Steele, Shirley Souders, Tom Barnhisel, and Bob Collins, sang "Blue Skies." There were two girls' sextets, one singing "Falling in Love with Love," and the other giving their rendition of "Speak Low." An original novelty number entitled "Water Can't Quench the Fire of Love" was done by Norma Chattin and Sue Barnhisel; Miss Carolyn Lesh presented two ballet numbers, "Variations on a Theme," and "Mexican Hat Dance." In the finale the choir climaxed the show singing "Desert Song," "One Alone," "Softly as in a Morning Sunrise," "Stout-hearted Men," and "Serenade." Curtain calls were taken by Sue Barnhisel and Norma Chattin for their very clever number, and by John Smith for his solo in "Serenade." Masters-of-Ceremonies were Phil McMahon and Robert Butler. "Thanks for a huge success, kids!"

Biologists bisect bugs and Librarians lend literature.

Actuariae

If you want to know anything about the library, just call for a member of the Actuariae. This year they decorated the bulletin board, fixed the Christmas tree in the library, had a bake-sale, and held a Mother-Daughter Tea besides their annual Christmas party. The girls did a lot in the way of making the library more attractive. Officers were President, Doris Warkentien; Vice-President, Marilyn Biehl; and Secretary-Treasurer, Barbara Mossburg. Miss Reynolds sponsored the group. Say, young lady, get your nose out of that book!

Biology Club

The Biology Club, which is headed by President Max (Frogy) Fordyce, is for those students who aspire to the biological field. In order to be eligible for this club, you must maintain a B average in Biology. After the initiation on November 20, it was reported that 18 new members had been added. Programs for the year consisted of speakers, biological films, a steak fry, and the annual Biology Trip.

Booster Clubs instil enthusiasm in sports events.

"The Booster Club is organized for the purpose of boosting school spirit," says President Roger Handwork; and Vice-President Bill Bond agrees.

The club started the year off with the usual initiation of new members. On Oct. 31 a Snake Dance, which ended on the banks of the Wabash with the burning of Peru's team in effigy, took the "high light" of the year. The club organized pep sessions, saw to the printing of the football and basketball programs, and was the underwriter for the buses sponsored to the games during the season, which added much bookkeeping to Secretary-Treasurer Rex Dolby's duties. The club was under the able sponsorship of Miss Reynolds.

Third Row: George Riseborough, Bill Santa, Ronnie Frybarger, Bob Collins, Larry Brooks, Bruce Maxwell, Larry Hensel, Jack Walknetz, Larry Cole, Bob Butler.

Service to their community and improvement among themselves are the purposes of the Sr. Hi-Y club. In addition to several planned programs, the club sponsors a number of activities. Among these are the Mother and Son and the Father and Son Banquets, a fall hayride, a Best Girl Dance, and a trip to one of Purdue's football games. Along with the other Hi-Y clubs this year, they also helped with the March of Dimes Drive.

Third Row: Larry Stallsmith, Bill Brown, Raymond Hemphill, Jim Passwater, Art Stonebraker, John Hicks, Dave Repp, Marvin Myers, Ed Gephart.

Jr. Hi-Y is organized for the Freshmen and Sophomore boys, and their purpose, too, is to maintain high standards of character. Meetings are held the first and third Tuesdays of the month. The meetings are either business or a speaker is called in to talk with the boys. Among their numerous activities this year were swimming, a hayride, a banquet, and they assist Sr. Hi-Y in planning the Best Girl Dance. The very capable officers were David Repp, President; Dick Lee, Vice-President; Bob Paulen, Secretary-Treasurer, and Kent Owen, Chaplain. Ken Green sponsors the group.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y motto includes Clean Scholarship

First Row: Weinley, Becker, Schacht, Golden, Herring, Beaty, Buzzard, Smith, Vardaman, Blackburn, Fontaine, Day, Beihl.
Second Row: Collins, Oden, Bell, Minniear, Stonebraker, Schnitz, Brickley, Fluke, Faulkner, Draper, Byrd, Hensel, Stahl.

Seventh Row: Dinius, Miller, Mullarky, Gaisford, Mossburg, Steger, Juillerat, Warkentien.
Eighth Row: Dye, Dolby, Carey, Guest, Auer, Schnitz, Hoffman, Flora, Burman, Roberts, Kramer.

This large organization, which includes junior and senior girls, strives for higher Christian principles. The girls heard speakers from different vocations during the year. They sponsored a hay-ride, held a Spring Bazaar, the merchandise for which they made themselves, and promoted the annual Anniversary Dance, which was dubbed the "Sock Dance." Joint meetings of Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y were held to discuss current topics.

Officers were: President, Doris Warkentien; Vice-President, Carolyn Van Dine; Secretary, Jo Ann Buzzard; Treasurer, Fanchon Snoke; and Chaplain, Norma Stonebraker. Mrs. O. K. Zeigler was the capable sponsor.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y motto includes Clean Speech

First Row: Spotts, Biehl, Schacht, Bellam, Drabenstot, Eagleson, Carter, Hurd, Guthier, Crews, Knoll, Weiger, Hart.
Second Row: Van Dine, Stickler, Burkhart, Rice, Schnitz, Whitacre, Allen, Miller, Hoover, Kidd, Watrous, Stoffel, Ware, Dinius.

Sixth Row: Abbot, Webb, Shull, Burton, Hudson, Copenhaver, Fowerbaugh, Kaufman, Trost.
Seventh Row: Petrucelle, Bailey, Burman, Kidd, Smith, Clipp, French.

Jr. Tri-Hi-Y was a very active club this year. Comprised of freshmen and sophomore girls, this club proved that the younger girls can get things done and done well. The girls had speakers from all walks of life give talks, held a candy sale, took part in the panel discussions, and sponsored the annual Father-Daughter Banquet.

President Bonnie Spotts had the able assistance of Vice-President Phyllis Van Dine, Secretary Pamela Weber, Treasurer Karen Perry, and Chaplain Julie Ware in carrying out the program of Jr. Tri-Hi-Y.

Sailors get training in Speaking and Nursing.

Masque and Gavel

The Masque and Gavel is an active speech organization. The programs, planned and executed by the members, have been presented at various churches and schools, besides before our own student body. Also they are in charge of the religious programs and daily announcements.

Activities carried out this year were a trip to the Purdue Speech Conference, the annual alumni banquet in December, participation in the Modulus Revue, and sending representatives to the Junior Town Meeting.

Officers this year were Marcus Burkholder, president; Ann Paulen, Vice-President; and Janet Johnson, Secretary. Mrs. Patterson contributed her time and effort in sponsoring this talkative group.

Front Row: Shirley Steger, Betty Roberts, Eva Nell Rash, Jodine Williams, Roberta Dolby, Barbara Hart, Carlene Beaty, Ann Blackburn, Sue Barnhisel, Juana Juillerat, Doris Warkentien, Joan Fontaine.

Future Nurses of America

A new club was added to H.H.S.'s extra curricular activities this year. It is a very worthy organization which helps girls interested in nursing prepare for further schooling. In their meetings they discussed various schools of nursing and heard several speakers. They made trips to the Methodist Hospital in Ft. Wayne and to the Indianapolis Medical Center. Officers of this new and budding Club are Sarah Ervin, President; Vice-President, Nancy Carey; Secretary, Carol Buzzard; and Treasurer, Carol Chalmers. Mrs. Elizabeth Sayle sponsors the group.

Lowly Sailor has representation

Student Council

Our student council is composed of 2 students from each home room. Its purpose is to work on the principle of equal representation on all school problems and activities. In this way we should be able to govern our school in a democratic manner patterned after our state government. The advisor is Mr. Johnson, and the officers for the year 1952-53 were: President, Bud Stringfellow; Vice-President, Gene Carroll; Secretary, Roger Handwork; Treasurer, Gene Kaufman.

Thanks to our student council, the P.T.A. bake sales have always been successful.

Back Row: Marvin Myers, Gene Carroll, Brooks Heck, Rex Dolby, Barbara Petrucelle, Janet Miller, Nancy Weesner, Phyllis Oden.

Third Row: Bob Paulen, Tom Lancaster, Dick Frederick, Sarahlee Allen, Bernadine Burkholder, Loretta Hubley, Julie Warc.

First Row: Betty Simons, Bernadine Burkholder, Jim Rouch.

F. T. A.

The purpose of this organization is to promote the pupils' interest in the teaching profession.

This year the method of cadet teaching has been used. This plan sends Seniors out into the grades to gain the experience of assuming duties along with the teacher.

F.T.A. meetings are held once a month sponsored by Miss Ellis. The high point of the year was the Conference at North Manchester College.

Officers are President, Gloria Mygrant; Vice-President, Janet Mygrant; Secretary, Janet Johnson; Treasurer, Ann Hurd.

Miss Zahn

In cabin 309 you will find one of the busiest teachers at H.H.S. Miss Geraldine Zahn is adviser to the Sahata staff. She oversees all the work of putting together and distributing the good ship's paper.

Sahata Sees All, Hears All, Tells All

If you should be ambling up the deck of old H.H.S. and come upon cabin 309, you would probably hear "Where's that sports article?" "Are the pictures all drawn for this week?" "Take this over to the typing room," —and later on—"Let me have a copy!" "Stop pushing, there's plenty more!!"

Another issue of the Sahata has been distributed, and a tired but happy crew, consisting of Rex Dolby, Sally Hosler, Bud Stringfellow, Kay Farrar, Shirley Gressley, Huston Smith, Judith Miller, Norma Lockhart, Janet Johnson, and Ann Blackburn, who is Art Editor, sigh with relief. No sooner is one Sahata done than another must be prepared. The Editorship is rotated every two weeks that the paper comes out. This gives each member of the staff a chance to be editor sometime during the year. As these kids, under the capable advisement of Miss Zahn, receive no credit for this work, I think they deserve our hearty appreciation!

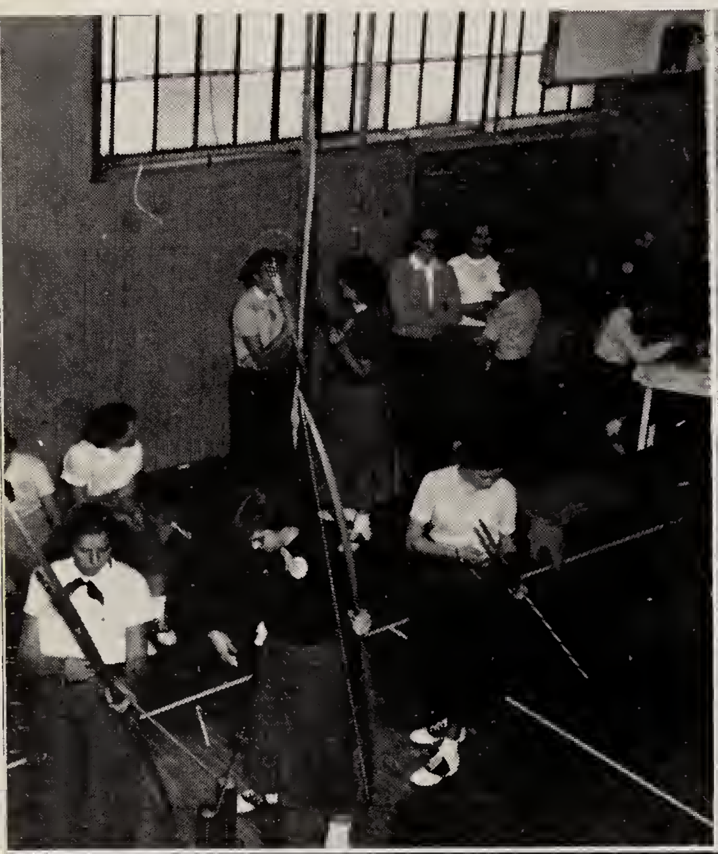
G. A. A. sponsors many activities aboard ship.

My, who are those athletic looking girls ambling through the halls? Oh, yes! Those are G.A.A. girls. From what they say, they have really had quite a busy year. There was a picnic at Lagro, a Southern Indiana trip, Mother-Daughter Banquet, volley-ball games, play days for the grade schools, various tournaments, and other numerous athletic events. The skipper of this crew was Margaret Herring as President. Assisting her were Vice-President Carlene Beaty; Secretary Norma Chattin; Treasurer Marilyn Biehl. Miss Ruth Luther is sponsor.



W.V.S.H. Voice of the Schools of Huntington

The radio station at H.H.S. is an institution of which we are very proud. All of the basketball and football games are broadcast, and this year the facilities were expanded to include Sunday afternoon community programs. Also on Saturday mornings we have a disc-jockey request program entitled "It's All Yours." The grades are served by transcriptions given especially for younger folks. These radio people are really "on the ball."

Senior Queen

sells "gobs" of tickets.

The girl who sold the most tickets to the senior play this year was Carolyn Van Dine. She was presented as queen during the play by Dick Morris, master of ceremonies. The other candidates who did a great job, too, were Shirley Vardaman, Marilyn Biehl, Maralyn Sours, and Betty Roberts. The girls deserve a vote of thanks for selling more tickets for a senior play than have ever been sold in the history of H.H.S.

"Old Doc" presented by Seniors

One of the greatest achievements of the senior class was their play, "Old "Doc," presented March 25, 26, and 27 of this year. "Old Doc" is an old-time, country doctor, overworked and lovable despite his gruff tone, who tries to influence his son into following his example instead of going to the big city to practice medicine. It is a heart-warming story of the young and old of America, very capably presented, which reaches an interesting climax. The Senior Class truly proved itself in this presentation as being one of the most talented classes to pass through H.H.S.

Swing-Inn

"Hey, are you going down to the Swing-Inn after school?" "See ya' at the Swing-Inn!" "Come on, let's dance; this is a fast one!" These are all very popular sayings around Huntington High School.

This year we were very happy to have a large addition made possible by the efforts of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, but we were saddened by the loss of the services of Miss Henry, who has been a swell help for a long time.

Officers of the Swing-Inn Board are Wayne Cozad, Pres., Bud Stringfellow, Vice-Pres., Sue Barnhisel, Sec'y., and Marilyn Querry, Treas. from H. C. Other members from H. H. S. are Joyce Auer, Kay Guhl, Bill Bond, Delene Smith and Gene Carroll. Members from H. C. are Dave Carmichael, Jerry Meehan, and Jane Casper.

Attendance Help

These are the students who check on whether you're at school, and if you're not, why. They're a lot of help to the Attendance Department; so thanks a lot, Robert Cutshall, Larry Blackburn, Alyn Carter, Howard Teddy, Beverly Gressley, Audrey Biggard, and Nedra Byrd.

Guidance Help

Here are those nice people who come around with the little yellow pass slips to get you out of class to have your program adjusted. They do a lot of work for the Guidance Department. They were: Nancy Carey, Carlene Beaty, Sue Barnhisel, Eleanor Carlson, Janice Bellam, and Judy Powell.

Book-Renters

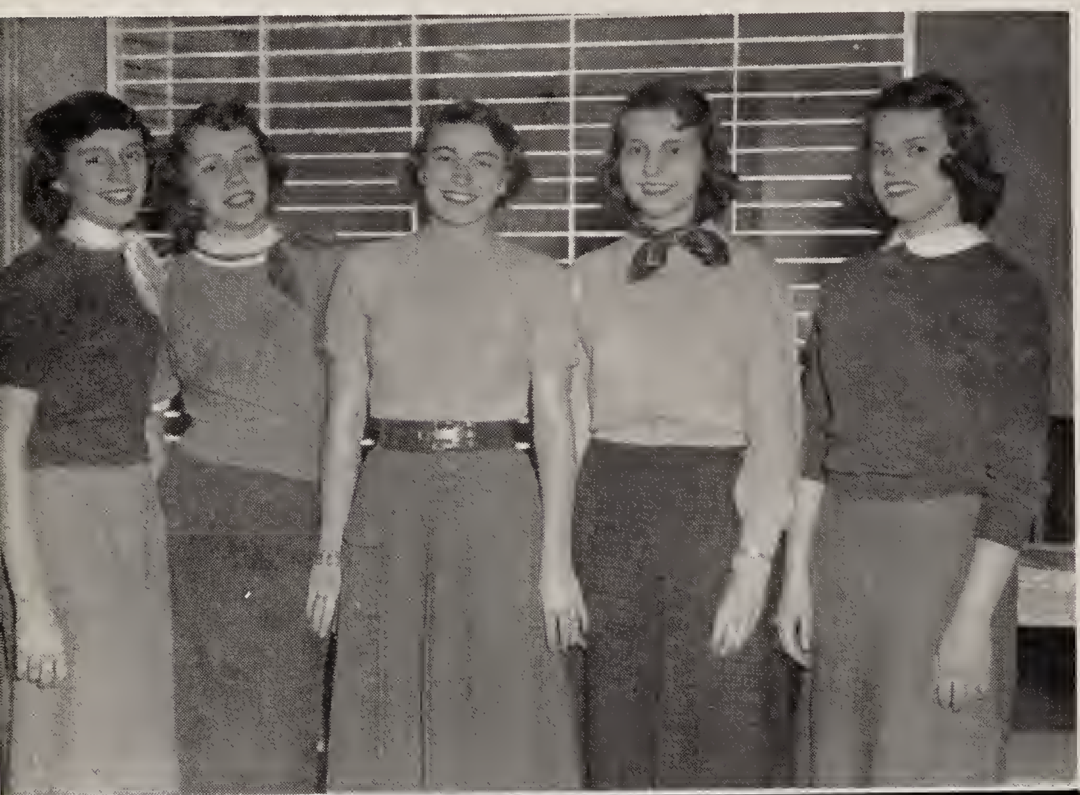
These are the students who stand behind the counters each semester taking our names, making change, and handing out textbooks. There must be an easier way to make a living.

Sunshine Society, through its various organizations, spreads cheer to many along the way.

One of our most active and progressive organizations is the Sunshine Society under the general sponsorship of Miss Alice Kline. The Sunshine officers included President, Joyce Ahner; Vice president, Ann Weesner; Treasurer, Nicki Schacht; Secretaries, Carolyn Burnworth and Bernadine Burkholder. The officers were in charge of the Thanksgiving program, Sunrise services, and the Senior breakfast.

Other various duties are assigned to the numerous Sunshine clubs. Their duties and officers were:

Mary White Guild under the chairmanship of Sheila Ensminger and sponsorship of Miss Weiford and Mrs. Porter arranged for the Holy Week services and made Easter and May Baskets.



Left to right—Bernadine Burkholder, Nicki Schacht, Joyce Ahner, Anne Weesner, Carolyn Burnworth.

Sitting—Jodine Williams, Georgianna Parmerlee, Norma Chattin, Rosemary Clipp.

Standing—Ann Blackburn, Julie Ware, Mary Ann Sands, Ann Earhart, Norma Lockhart, Sheila Ensminger. Miss Alice Kline, Sponsor.

Social Service Sunbeams sponsored by Miss Emma Kline and officers—president, Georgianna Parmerlee; vice president, Mary Ann Sands; and secretary-treasurer, Betty Burton,—made trips to the County Farm and took candy and programs to the old people.

Craft made cookbooks and had an exhibit in the spring. Craft was sponsored by Miss Zahn, and officers included chairman, Ann Blackburn and secretary-treasurer, Judith Miller.

Big and Little Sister sponsored Green-day and Peanut Week this year under the guiding hands of advisor, Miss Alice Kline, and officers Jodine Williams, chairman and Julie Ware, co-chairman.

Gales with their capable officers Rosemary Clipp, chairman, and Norma Lockhart, co-chairman, and Miss Alice Kline, advisor, arranged a potluck supper held for all mem-

Band adds pep to games and presents excellent concerts.

This year the band provided music for home football and basketball games, pep sessions, and parades as well as their annual spring concert in the high school auditorium.

They sold magazine subscriptions in order to boost their finances. This enables them to make trips to out-of-town games and to the state band contest held every spring. All the members are looking forward to the completion of the new addition; so that they can move into their long-needed practice room. This will have many improvements over the old one as there will be lockers for equipment, a permanent platform; also the lights and acoustics will be greatly improved. They certainly deserve it after the fine performances they have given.

Mr. Weesner

It is through the energy and ability of Mr. Weesner that the students of H.H.S. have had the opportunity to listen to and play in one of the finest bands in the state. This is his 27th consecutive year as director of the band which has become a traditional part of our school life. Next year he is looking forward to the new band room which will be in the addition.

Majorettes

Here come the beauties of the football field! Those girls you saw strutting their stuff this year at the games were Norma Chattin, Shirley Vardaman, and Betty Roberts. You did a swell job, girls.

Drum Major

Brooks Heck, in his first year as drum major, has done a splendid job of leading the band in marching and executing drills at the football games and parades this year.

Mr. Cloyde Slater

Mr. Slater, our hard-working choir director, has produced one of the best high school choirs in our vicinity. A graduate of Huntington College, Manchester College, and the University of Wisconsin, he holds B. S. and M. S. degrees. Come on, you swabbies, get that tone quality!

Choir is acclaimed an outstanding musical group.

The choir made many public appearances this year. They started the year by singing at the grade schools in preparation for their Christmas concert. They made their annual spring concert tour to various schools in the outlying communities and participated in the Modulus Revue and Commencement exercises.

Some of the soloists of the year were John Smith, June Petrie, Sheila Ensminger, Bob Collins, Carol Schnitz, and Carolyn Collins. The sextet consisted of Barbara Kissinger, Carolyn Collins, Sharon Altman, Carol Becker, Carol Schnitz, and Sheila Ensminger. The quartet consisted of Tom Barnhisel, Shirley Souders, Bob Collins, and Carol Steele.

We are very proud of the wonderful job the choir has done under the direction of Cloyde Slater and accompanied by Patty Enos.

Front—Norma Kidd, Sheila Ensminger, Jeannine Boner, Margaret Herring, Norma Stonebraker, Phyllis Oden, Carolyn Kimmel, Ann Earhart, Wanda Hensel, Julie Norfleet, Jane Flora, Sharon Altman, Anne Hurd, Barbara Kissinger, Loretta Hubley.

Third—Carol Steel, Donna Golden, Joyce Fowerbaugh, Max Pinkerton, Jim Stahl, Robert Collins, Larry North, Earl Landrum, Pete Strodel, Dick Lee, Tom Barnhisel, Phil McMahan, Sue Akers, Carolyn Collins, Norma Chattin.

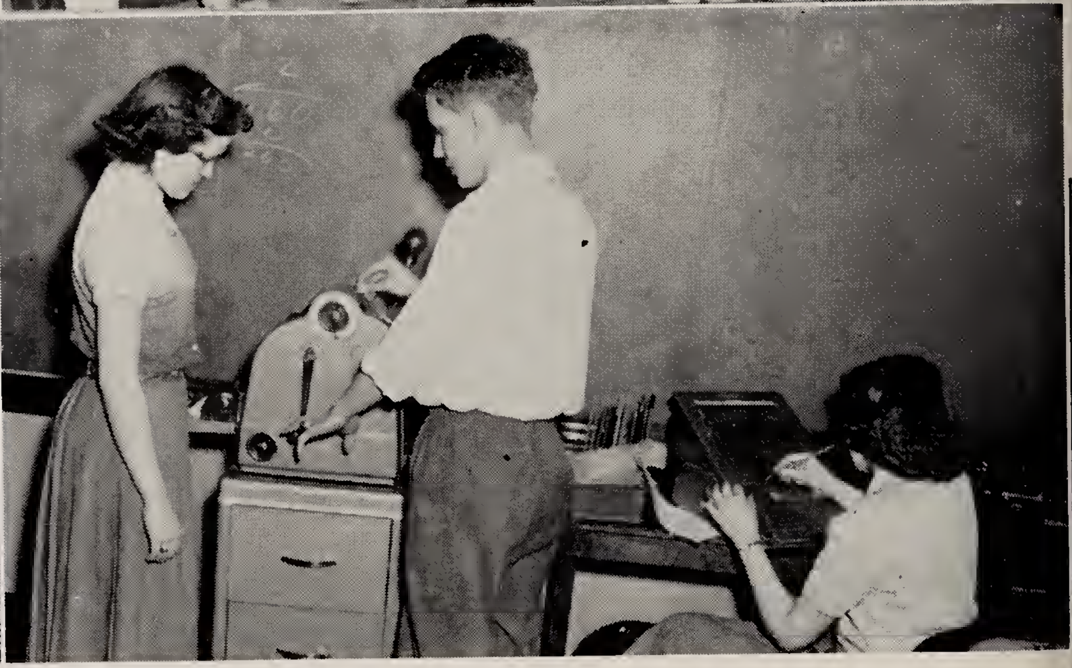
Last—Janelle Weist, Carol Ade, Sarah Ervin, June Petrie, Bob Eagleson, Don Myers, John Smith, Carlson Becker, Larry Reeves, Jerry Ball, Bill Keith, Paul Dolby, Raymond Kemphill, Gloria Dirrim, Carolyn Lesh, Janet French.

First Sextette

Sheila Ensminger, Carol Schnitz, Carol Becker, Sharon Altman, Carolyn Collins, Barbara Kissinger.

Second Sextette

Jeanine Kelsey, Gloria McKee, Julie Norfleet, Maralyn Sours, Norma Kidd, Jeanne Beeler.



Honors bestowed on outstanding Juniors and Seniors

Junior Honor Society

The junior class and teachers vote on the students of the top 25 per cent of the class. The seven with the most votes are elected to the Junior Honor Society. In this way not only grades but popularity are important. The seven elected this year were: Eleanor Carlson, Max Fordyce, Jerry Ball, Stephen Moon, George Riseborough, Jo Ellen Gerdes, and Tom Lancaster.

Senior Honor Society

The Senior Honor Society is elected by a vote of faculty and senior class members. The top 15 per cent of the class is voted on and nineteen are chosen; they receive a small pin as members. Those chosen for this year were: Ann Paulen, Sheila Ensminger, Delene Smith, Patricia Enos, Tom Barnhisel, Rex Dolby, Sue Barnhisel, Sara Sue Stockman, Roberta Dolby, Richard Morris, Marcus Burkholder, Janet Johnson, Max Pinkerton, Doris Warkentien, Fanchon Snoke, Robert Butler, Norma Stonebraker, Ann Blackburn, and Carol Becker.

U. N. Representatives

Max Pinkerton and Tom Barnhisel from Mr. Ware's Civics class, and Jeannine Kelsey and Gloria Dirrim from Mrs. Ritchie's U. S. History class represented Huntington at the United Nations Model Assembly sponsored by Manchester College on April 10.

Senior Gifts Presented

At a special auditorium the senior class presented gifts to the school totaling about $3,300. These gifts included: a popcorn machine and case, spotlight, drop curtain, Gestetner duplicating machine, darkroom equipment, skeleton and case and rebuilt stage furniture.

Valedictorian

Here is the top seaman of the year. Delene Smith ranked first in the class. She accepted the diplomas in behalf of the senior class from Mrs. Ruth M. Dunkin.

Salutatorian

Sheila Ensminger, ranking second in the class, was Salutatorian. She, representing the senior class, accepted the Bibles from Miss Jennie B. Wilson.

Seniors honored by Kiwanis & Rotary

K. B. F.

Kiwanis Builds Forever is composed of the top 5 per cent of the senior class. This is based purely on scholastic rating. The Kikanis Club gives a dinner for these students along with the honor to encourage higher grades. Those chosen for the year of 1952-53 were: Delene Smith, Sheila Ensminger, Ann Paulen, Fanchon Snoke, Patricia Enos, and Roberta Dolby.

Junior Rotary

The Huntington Rotary chooses a senior boy each school month to be Junior Rotarian. This honor is bestowed on those boys who possess manners, dependability, and personality. Those chosen for 1952-53 were: September, Bill Bond; October, Marcus Burkholder; November, Larry Blockburn; December, Rex Dolby; January, Robert Cutshall; February, Richard Morris; March, Con Updike; April, Robert Hammel; and May, Wayne Cozad.

Sweetheart Dance

A theme of hearts and cupid with favors of red paper lace valentines and the magical music of Jimmy Stier's Orchestra greeted the couples entering the Masonic Temple on the evening of February 14, 1953. Joyce Ahner, president of S.S.S. and her escort, Jim Boggs, broke the traditional heart. Little Susie Buzzard, dressed as a Valentine Sweetheart, presented each couple with a heart of chance bearing a quaint inscription as they stepped through the heart.

Norma Chattin served as general chairman of the dance with Lowell Buzzard and Alice Kline as faculty advisers. Thanks go to them for a perfect evening.

Reception

Indeed it was an evening of enchantment for the many couples who attended the Junior-Senior Reception of 1952. The Masonic Temple was transformed into a rock-walled garden containing myriads of flowers, bird houses, and little pixy dolls. Dinner music was furnished by Miss Gloria Enos, at the piano. Dick Morris, toastmaster, called upon Bill Bond for the prayer. Bruce Stewart read the class will; Roberta Dolby gave the prophecy. Raymond S. Beights presented a variety of compositions on the electric organ. Following the banquet, the Satisfiers of Lafayette furnished lovely dance music, which put the finishing touches on a truly perfect evening.

Football squad has a good season.

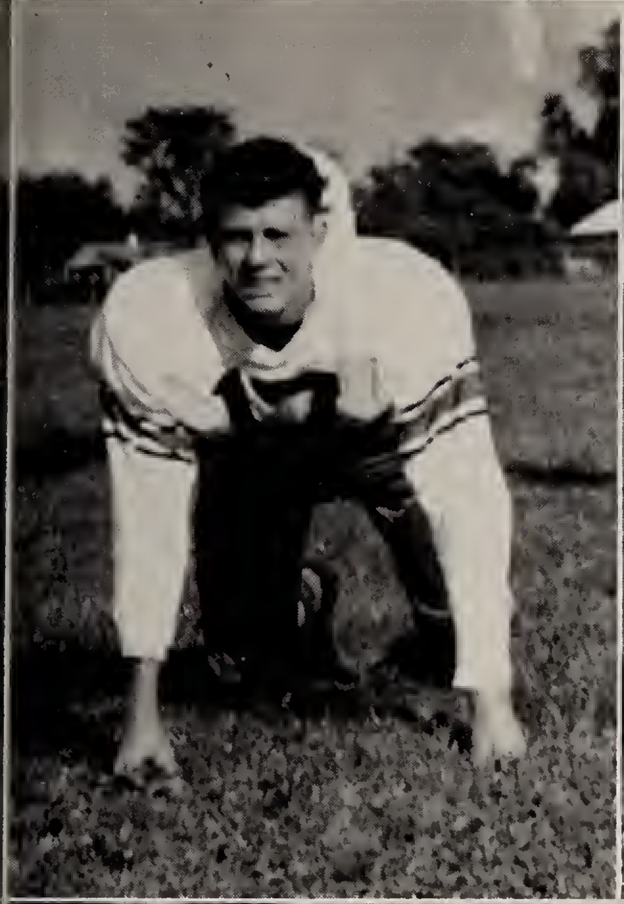
The Vikings completed the '52 season with a 5 and 4 record. After opening the season with wins over Marion and Hartford City, they dropped the next two to Wabash and Warsaw. The Vikes came back to win from Central, Columbia City, and Rochester and lost the last 2 to Plymouth and Peru. The last two games dropped the Vikes from a first place tie to seventh in C.I.C. standings.

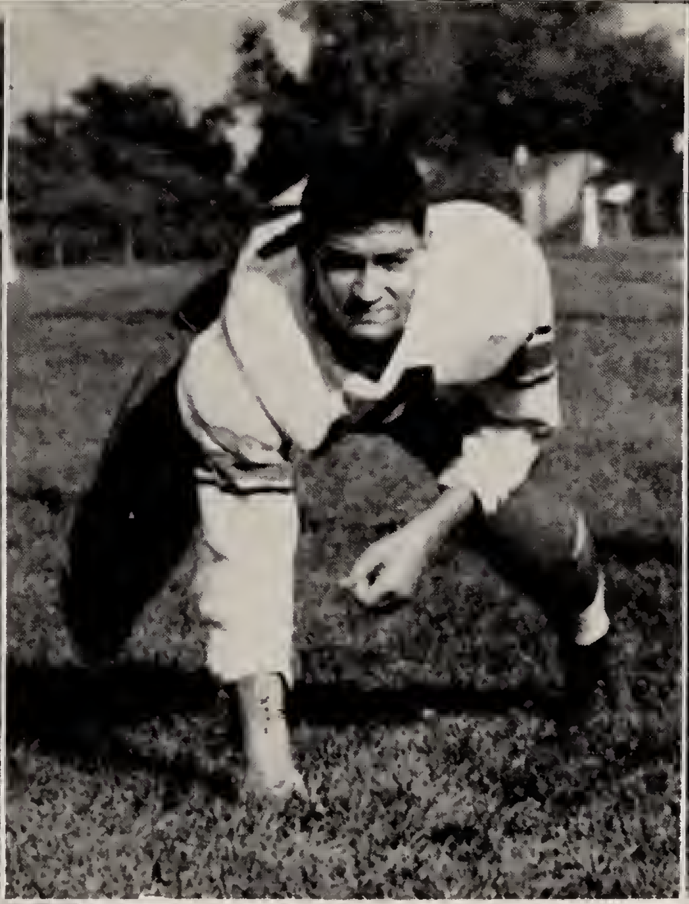
Coaches

Bill Williams, Oscar Naab, and Bob Baker were the capable coaches, who navigated the Vikings through a successful season.

Student Managers

The helpful and reliable student managers of the Vikings are Max Fordyce, Joe Zimmerlee, and Dick Ferguson.





Seniors

Bill Bond: "Willie" called the signals, played defensive halfback, and did the team's punting. This was Bill's third year of varsity ball and his playing pulled the Vikings out of several tight spots. His ability was evidenced by the fact he was elected to the all C.I.C. third team.

Wayne Cozad: "Cozie" will be remembered for his hard tackles and driving runs. Wayne played fullback and defensive line backer. "Cozie" concluded his third year on the varsity by being given honorable mention on the All State team, elected to the all C.I.C. second team, and honorary co-captain of the Vikings.

Rex Dolby: "Doby" played several positions both on offense and defense during his three years of varsity ball. This season "Dob" played center and defensive linebacker and halfback and did the kicking off until a muscle injury limited him to offense. "Doby" also was elected to the all C.I.C. third team.

Nick Spentzos: "Auger" played offensive and defensive guard. Nick opened the holes for our backs and really stopped the opposition. This was "Auger's" third season on the varsity, and he had the distinct honor of being elected to the All State defensive first team, to the all C.I.C. first team, and honorary co-captain of the Vikings.

David Grim: Dave, who finished his second year of football as a reserve tackle and guard for the Vikings, will be lost by graduation this year. He played on the B team and provided plenty of opposition against the varsity in scrimmage.

Freshmen win 90 per cent during the year.

Marion

The Vikes opened their '52 football season by defeating a heavier Marion team 13 to 0.

The first T. D. came after Handwork recovered a fumble on Marion's 14. Six plays later on the 1 yard line, Bond threw a quickie to Robrock in the end zone for the score and Stringfellow converted.

The second score came in the middle of the 4th quarter. The Vikes started on their own 44 and eleven plays later, Boyle went over from the 6 on a quick opener. Stringfellow's conversion was wide.

Hartford City

The Vikes took H. C. 28 to 0 for their first C.I.C. win.

Stringfellow scored the first T. D. and Cozad followed with number two. Later Cozad intercepted a pass on the H. C. 21 and set up Boyle's T. D. from the 11 yard line.

In the 3rd quarter Boyle picked up a fumble on H. C.'s 40 and went over for the final touchdown. Gene Carroll converted 4 out of 4 extra points for a perfect evening.

Wabash

The Apaches took this game from the Vikes 25 to 13. Huntington held a 7 to 0 half-time lead when Bond picked up a Wabash fumble and went 26 yards for the score with Carroll kicking the extra point.

Wabash got 6 points in the third quarter and picked up 19 in the fourth. Our Vikes got their last T. D. with 40 seconds left to play. Handy took the kickoff on the 35 and went to the Wabash 11 and two plays later Boyle scored. Carroll missed the conversion.

Warsaw

Huntington dropped number two to Warsaw 9 to 15. Cozad scored the T. D. and Carroll converted. Later in the first quarter Bond punted one out of bounds on Warsaw's 1 yard line and Spentzos picked off Warsaw's Don Light for a safety. Huntington led 9 to 6 at the half, but again the second half was too much. In the third period Warsaw scored 9 points on a T. D., an extra point, and a safety when the ball slipped through our safety man and a Warsaw man recovered it. Huntington was on the Warsaw 15 when the game ended.

Freshmen Squad

Baker's Bombers came through the '52 season with a 2 and 2 record; they won from Peru and Warsaw; but were out-scored by Wabash and Marion.

Combined with the sophomores, they added 3 more to the win column by taking Hartford City, Decatur, and Warsaw.

Stanley Mooberry, Doug Cravens, Nelson Burnworth, Steve Olinger, Gene Hensel, Bill Coates, Larry Oxley, Jerry Dolby, Jim Passwater, Kent Owen.

Donald Palmer, Arthur Stonebraker, Harold Stulz, Richard Brandt, John Brandt, Kent Knight, Tom Hummer, Jon Pinney, Bob Lohr.

Scyldings
show great strength.
B Team

The Viking B Team, coached by Oscar Naab, had a perfect season winning 5 and losing none to give a preview of possible records next year. They won from Peru, Marion, Warsaw, and beat Wabash twice.

Vikes play some real thrillers.

Assistant Coach Oscar Naab, and Coach Lou Watson.

Columbia City

Exploding like a time bomb in the fourth period, the Vikes blasted the Eagles 60 to 46 in the season's opener.

Although the Eagles held an edge of 11 to 9 at the end of the first quarter and 21 to 18 at the half, the Vikes pulled ahead in the third 32 to 31 and shot the works in the fourth.

Wabash

The Vikes edged ahead in the final minute of play and froze the ball more than 40 seconds to beat the Wabash Apaches 60 to 55.

The Vikes had a lead of 14 to 8 in the first period, 29 to 21 at halftime, and 45 to 41 at the end of the third. The Apaches tied it up at 55 all with a little more than a minute to go, then Cozad hit a field goal and Carroll hit 3 straight from the foul line and the Vikes stalled the remaining seconds.

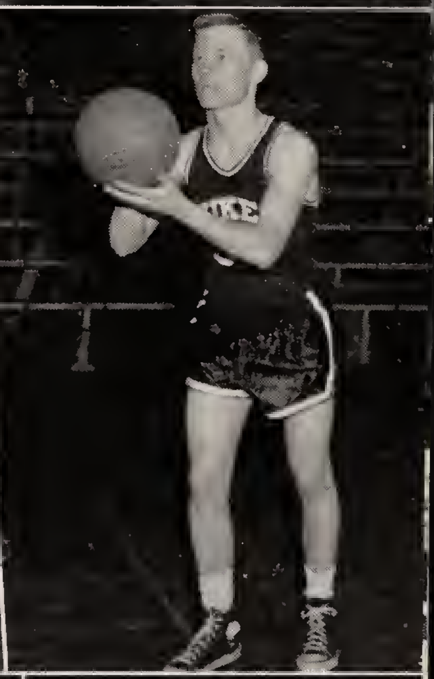
Our Vikes

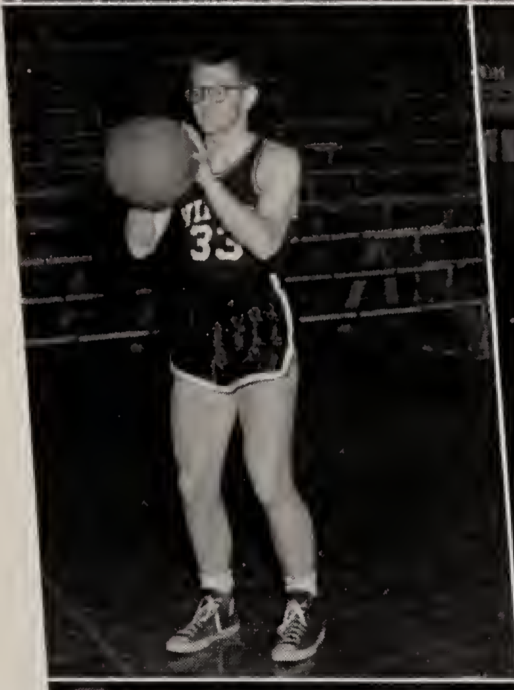


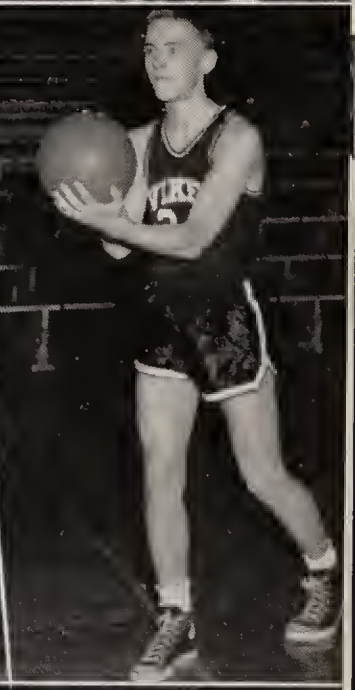
Bill Bond ended his third year on the varsity squad at the forward spot. Willie's fine shooting and rebounding helped win many games, and it was his shot that won the '53 sectional. Bill's hot playing earned him a berth on the all sectional first team and he was elected honorary co-captain by his teammates.

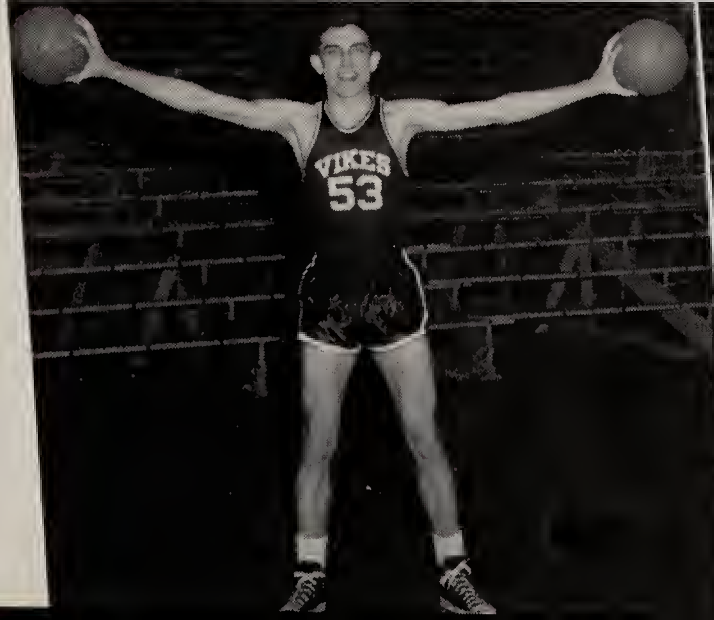
Gene Carroll completed his second year with the Vikings at a guard spot. Gene got honorable mention on the all sectional team and will be back with the Vikes next year.

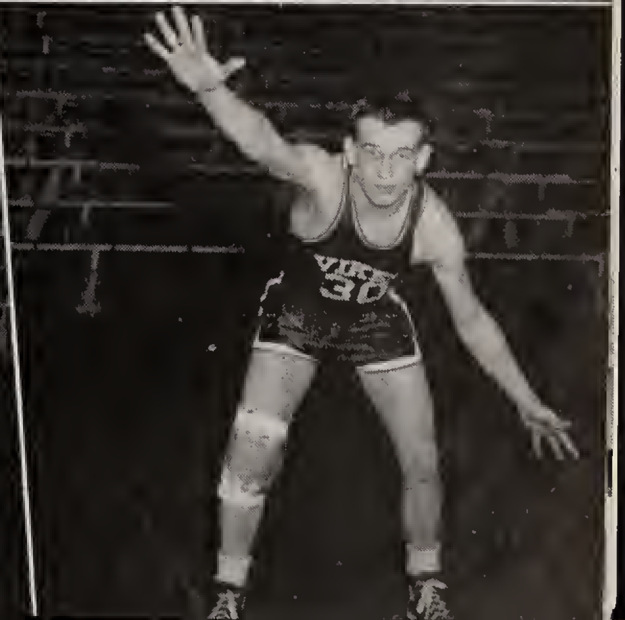
Wayne Cozad ended his varsity basketball career at a reserve guard position. Although Cozie didn't play much, his spirit and drive helped keep the Viking machine rolling through the season.

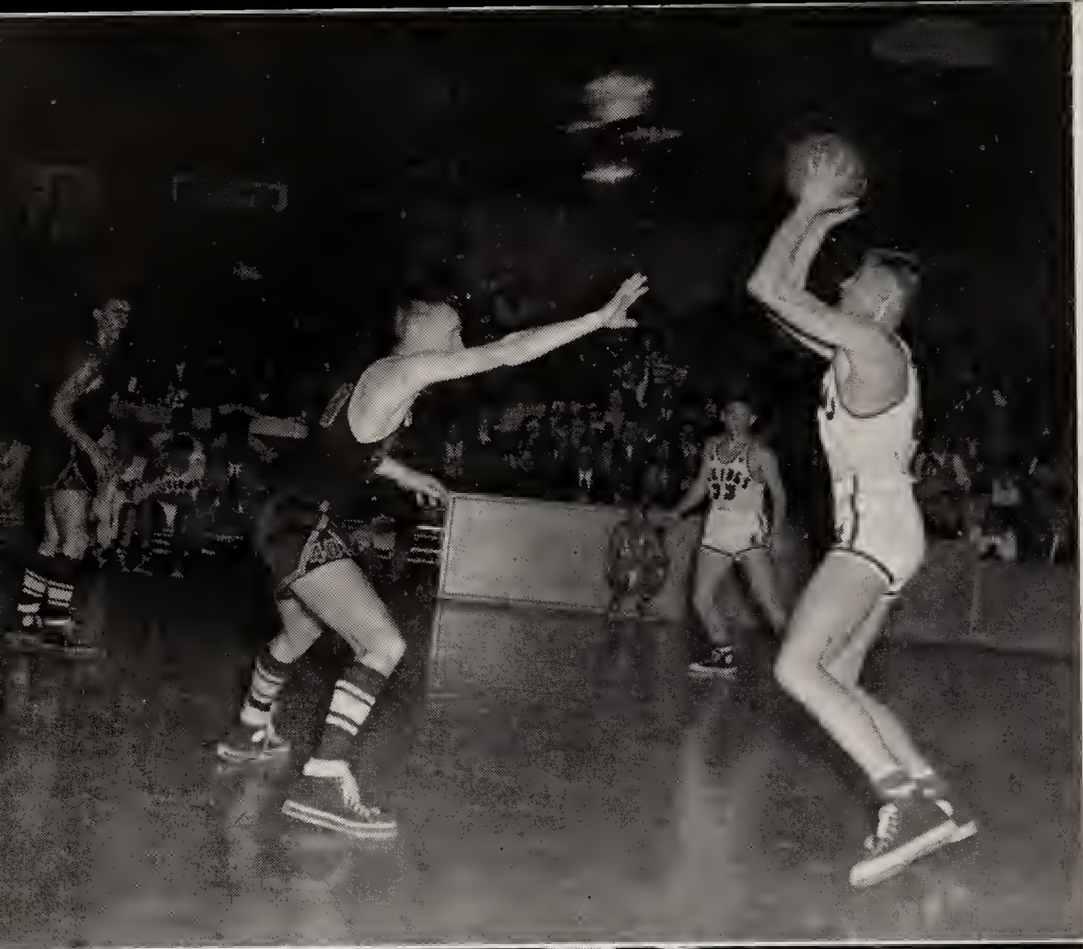
Ron Crawley completed three years of varsity ball by holding down the other forward position in fine style. Because of his exceptional ability, his teammates elected him their most valuable player and honorary co-captain. Squinty also was elected to the all sectional second team, and he won a free throw trophy by hitting .63 of his free throw shots.











Paul Huffman also completed his first year on the varsity squad. He was used at center and should help the Viking cause next season.

Don Hum finished his second year of varsity ball as a reserve forward. Don's shooting and rebounding will be valuable to the Vikes next year.

Gene Kaufman came up from the Scyds to play at a guard spot. Gene's shooting will be valuable to the Vikes next year.

Tom Lancaster, fiery, red-headed guard, finished his first season of varsity ball, and his drive and spirit will do much to keep the Vikes in their winning ways.

Blaine Robrock completed his second year on the Viking squad as reserve center. Roby's playing will be valuable to the Vikes next season.

Dave Winkleman, who came up from the Scyds and earned a place on the sectional and regional teams, will be playing for the Vikes next year.

Rog Handwork finished his third year with the Vikes and he'll be back again next year. Big Rog's shooting and rebounding earned him a place on the all sectional second team, and he also hit .63 of his free thows for a free throw trophy.

Bud Stringfellow ended his first year with the Vikes at the other guard position. Bud also received honorable mention on the all sectional team and will be back to help the Vikings' cause next year.

Scyldings train a number of fine replacements.

The Scyldings played a total of 20 games this season winning 12 and losing 8. Besides playing 18 preliminary games for the Vikings, the Scylds played in a B team tourney, which they won by beating Decatur 35 to 24 and taking Concordia 44 to 37 in the finals.

The Scylds racked up 798 points for the season on 286 field goals and 216 of 411 free throws, while their opponents collected 754 points on 237 field goals and 280 of 465 free throws.

The aggressive playing of the Scyds is shown by the fact that Scyldings had 307 personal fouls called against them compared to only 247 for their opponents. With such a season record we should have much to look forward to in the future.

Viking Cheerleaders

Joyce Ahner, Beverly Gressley, Sue Barnhisel, Nancy Carey.

Here are those peppy young ladies you saw leading the cheering section at all the games this year. Thanks to their efforts, we had one of the best yell blocks ever. The girls were Beverly Gressley, Joyce Ahner, Sue Barnhisel, and Nancy Carey.

Intramural basketball is a very popular sport.

This year the intramural program was divided into two leagues, the junior and senior, with the freshmen and sophomores in the junior league and the juniors and seniors in the senior league. At the start of the basketball season teams were made up in both leagues by the various boys interested.

Senior League

The Senior league proved to be very exciting this year, as all teams were very well balanced. During the first half of the season the "Luckies" coached by David Kelsey ran up an unbeaten string of three games before they were stopped by the "Seven Dwarfs," managed by Jim Burkhart. Then the Seven Dwarfs were beaten by the "Jersities" coached by Ernie Williams, who in turn were beaten by the "Trojans" managed by Jack Walknetz.

Junior League

The junior league did not prove to be as exciting as the senior league. The Tigers, coached by Earl Landrum, ran away with the league without being defeated.

The teams were the Pirates, managed by Casper; the Atomic Seven, coached by Burnsworth; the Attucks, coached by Lewellen; and the Tigers, managed by Earl Landrum.

Class Will

We the supremely illustrious class of 1953; after full deliberation and with consideration of the consequence involved do ordain and bequeath the superior qualities and outstanding feats of our exalted and celebrated members to our misguided and insignificant descendant whom we know will never aspire to the heights reached by this class.

Joyce Ahner bestows her yell-leading ability upon Tardy Briggs.

Liz Alexander allots her quiet and studious ways to Kay Stoffel.

Sue Barnhisel confers upon all who remain, her theme, "Water Can't Quench The Fire of Love."

Tom (I know the answer) Barnhisel gives Diff back his physics classes.

Jim Bates concedes his position as Woodshop Foreman to fill in for Henry Ford II.

Carlene Beaty leaves her big smile and roller skates to Beth Safford.

Carol Becker wills her book on "The Study of Red Heads" to those who may need it.

Jane Bell leaves her ability to make committees "click" to the chairman of the Prophecy Committee.

Marilyn Biehl grants her stature to Marilyn Thompson.

Bob Bixby leaves an extremely large vacant space in Ed Burke's home room to any incoming freshman who might be big enough to fill it.

Ann Blackburn wills her spot on the Decoration Committees to anyone who can fulfill them.

Larry Blackburn awards his handsome physique to any freshman who's man enough to take it.

Shirley Blackford bequeaths her mannerly ways to Dave Buzzard who is sadly in need of them.

Bill Bond leaves his thrilling and amazing last second baskets to Bevo Francis.

Jeannine Boner wills her sweet and charming ways to Sharon Young.

Joyce Bonifas gives her two wheeled car (especially made for turning corners) to Dick Lee.

Wally Brenton leaves his slow speaking manner to Sally Hosler.

Deloris Brickley bestows her long hair upon Pat Broom.

Shirley Brubaker wills her gum chewing to someone with strong jaws.

Jim Burkhart concedes his intramural playing to some up and coming ambitious Senior.

Marcus Burkholder allots a big blonde curl to each member of his sophomore harem.

Dean Burman gives Buzz back his Nurseries.

Carol Buzzard leaves her natural red hair as a challenge to those who like to try all colors.

Jo Ann Buzzard wills the minutes back to Tri-Hi-Y up to date.

Bob Butler bestows the rule of the roost (WVSH) to T. Alexander G.

Nancy Carey leaves her yell-leading to have a Dickens of a time.

Alyn Carter bequeaths his jabbering mouth to Don Meyers.

Carol Chalmers distributes her ability to eat more cake at slumber parties to anyone who—likes cake.

Norma Chattin leaves her theme song "Trying" to our sophisticated Sophomores.

Rosemary Clipp wills the spot in her heart for Roanoke to—oh just any Stonewall.

Sondra Cotton donates her vast collection of popular records to W.V.S.H.

Wayne Cozad leaves Coach Bill with the job of filling the big gap in the back line.

Ron (Squinty) Crawley wills his ability to read a "pocket mystery" a day to anyone with two study halls.

Bob Cutshall bequeaths his unusual hair style to Jerry Ball.

Paul Dolby bestows his towering height upon Jerin Juillerat.

Rex Dolby leaves his many heart broken girls to Huston Smith who seems to already have a good supply.

Bert Dolby gives her outstanding vocabulary to Ken Owens.

Nancy Day bequeaths her book on "How To Become Engaged" to Barbara Hart.

Pat Enos wills her nimble fingers to anyone who's all thumbs.

Sheila Ensminger gives her foreign accent and diplomatic ways to the next foreign exchange student.

Nancy Fahrnow leaves her blonde hair to Janis Clipp who seems to like that color.

Marlene Faulkner allots her seat in home room 102 to some up and coming freshman.

Jo Ellen Fluke wills her giggle to Miss Weiford—this ought to be something.

Ray Frederick parts with his place on the absentee list.

Jo Gaisford gives her job as librarian to some aspiring Actuariae member.

Bob Goble leaves his swimming ability to the Holtry brothers.

Donna Golden wills her party making ability to Julie Norfleet who always wants to have one.

Bev Gressley donates her vim and vitality to Miss Luther.

Dave Grim leaves his slow and quiet ways to Pat Boyle.

Carol Haines awards her wild tales to Steve Smith.

Bob Hammel concedes his spot in the Senior Play to someone who can die gracefully.

Bill Hawk wills his car to anyone who thinks he can put it in second gear.

Margret Heineking leaves her dimples and strawberry blonde hair to Barbara Petrucelle.

Wanda Lou Hensel concedes her ability to make 32 credits in 3½ years.

Jim Morrow leaves his ability to get on the right track to those who are off the track.

Barbara Mossburg wills her place in Advanced Typing class to Mary Ann Sands.

Carol Mullarky wills her innocent ways to Gene Kaufman.

Gloris Mygrant leaves with Mygrants still to come.

Phyllis Oden awards her long black curls to Mr. Burk who needs it now that 212 is vacant.

Wilma Pasko wills her perfect attendance record to any healthy freshman.

Ann Paulen leaves play practice—to practice the professional kiss with wack jalknets.

June Petrie wills her place in the community and leaves for Muncie.

Max Pinkerton leaves a self made man who worships his creator!

Jim Reeb gives away his scientific ability to go on another hike with the Boy Scouts.

Betty Roberts leaves her southern drawl at the drinking fountains of H.H.S.

Bill Santa wills his ability to go to more parties to Bob Paulen.

Boyd Scarborough leaves his ability to go to High School and College in the same school year to any—oh genius.

Nicki Schacht wills her poster making technique to Carolyn Burnworth.

Bob Schroeder leaves his squealing tires to Dick Holmes.

Shirley Schnitz bequeaths "It's All Yours" to Carol Steele.

Sally Shroyer wills her peaches and cream complexion to the red faced Juniors.

Delene Smith leaves with Dick on her leash.

Fanchon Snoke bequeaths her shorthand ability to Mr. Wilbern.

Jack Snover leaves his naive way with the women to George Riseborough.

Jerry Snowden distributes his blue slips to Timmy Lancaster and Pete Sowerwine.

Class Prophecy

We were strolling through the pleasant Indiana countryside one fine summer day, idly wondering about our old friends at H. H. S., when we spied a strange object in the sky. It appeared to be coming straight toward us. A flying saucer! That's what it is! It lands slowly and noiselessly just a few yards from us. A strange, weird-looking creature lifts the hatch and climbs out. Why, it's Dave Kelsey! Another head appears, and we recognize it as Bob Cutshall's.

"Hop in," they say, "and we'll go for a ride." We climb in, and Dave shifts into low gear. The flying saucer leaps into the sky and in a matter of seconds the earth is a tiny speck far behind us. "We're not going much faster than the speed of light," Harlan Hummer, our co-pilot, informs us. "Never could get much speed out of this buggy."

Something flashes past our window, and we look out in time to see Bruce Maxwell in his rocket "88" whiz past us.

After several minutes of flying through space, we approach a strange planet, far removed from our galaxy. Captain Kelsey lands the saucer on a man-made space platform revolving about the planet. Jim Bates rolls up in his atomic repair truck and tightens up a few nuts and bolts on the saucer while Jim Hillegas and Bob Goble fill the saucer's tanks with rocket fuel and wipe the bugs off the windshield.

We then set off on the final hop from the space platform to the planet. We come down low over a neat-looking farm with Max Pinkerton printed in big letters on the barn roof, and we see Don Kimmel, a farm hand, out in a field milking a cow.

We land at a huge spaceport, and as we get out of the flying saucer, we are aproached by a welcoming committee consisting of Bob Schroeder, Emma Stenzel, and Norma Williams, and headed by Bill Hawk. Bill graciously offers to take us on a tour through the city. Alyn "Flash" Carter is on hand to snap our picture as we step off the saucer, and Judith Miller and Sara Sue Stockman rush up to interview us. Over on another runway we spy Sheila Ensminger just returning from another of her many trips to foreign planets.

Our guide first leads us to the city hall, where we receive an official greeting from Mayor Jim Reeb. Out on the front lawn Alan Knight proudly hoists the country's flag to the top of the flagpole. We peek in on the city council and see Roberta Dolby, Hugh Maxwell, Jack Walknetz and Bob Bixby very quietly discussing their political views, when Marcus Burkholder calls the meeting to order. In another room, Margret Heineking smiles at us from behind her desk piled high with foreign correspondence. We wind our way through the immense halls attractively decorated with paintings by Carol Chalmers, Donna Golden, and Jo Ann Buzzard, and visit the police station. Here we see Sergeant Patty Enos of Space Patrol bringing in Ernie Williams, Jim Martin, and Carl Dolby for speeding past the city hall.

We step out of the city hall just in time to see a big parade come marching up the main street. The majorettes, Norma Chattin, Betty Roberts, and Shirley Vardaman, are prancing and twirling their batons in front of the band. In the band, Jerry Snowden is puffing away on his baritone trying to out-toot Dave Grim and Boyd Scarborough, who are right behind him. The streets are lined with people watching the parade. Ann Blackburn is sitting on the curb knitting a sweater for her little dog. Not far from her stand Marlene Faulkner, Fanchon Snoke, Charlotte Williams, Shirley Brubaker, and Elizabeth Alexander (who, by the way, is absorbed in reading a book). Here come the floats! Adorning them are Catherine Miller, Wanda Lou Hensel, Sondra Cotton, and Doris Ware, all posing in colorful costumes.

After the parade passes by, we ask our guide if we can visit the local school, so he obligingly takes us there. On the way we pass the parsonage of the Reverend Tom Barnhisel and wave to Paul Dolby, who is humming quietly to himself as he mows the lawn.

On the cornerstone of the school building is inscribed: "Erected by James Burkhart Construction Company." We of course stop in at the office and say hello to the principal, Janet Johnson, and her secretaries, Gloria Mygrant and Carolyn Van Dine. Standing in the hall with a bunch of arrows in her hand is Margaret Herring, the girls' physical ed instructor, chatting with the librarian, Wilma Pasko; and there goes the audio-visual director, old white-haired Bob Butler, affectionately known as "Pop," racing up the stairs with a film can in his hand.

Not far from the school is a cemetery that Bill wants us to visit. There we bow our heads and shed a silent tear over the graves of dear old Mr. Diffenbaugh and Jennie B. Wilson, two sponsors who served their class well. Their graves are modestly marked by a gleaming marble statue of a popcorn machine.

The planet's intergalaxial electronic communications center (radio and television station) is next on our visiting list. Wallace Brenton is sitting in the control room frantically twisting knobs and dials and waving his arms at Juana Juillerat, Shirley Schnitz, and Jane Bell, who are announcing a disc jockey show.

It is close to suppertime when we leave the radio station, so we step into the street and head for Addie Bell Horsley's restaurant, but we quickly jump back on the sidewalk when Don Updike comes skidding around the corner in his jet-propelled delivery truck. At the restaurant we enjoy a delicious repast of the planet's best delicacies served to us by Shirley Blackford and Shirley Short.

Next Bill takes us to the greatest sports spectacle of the universe—the planet's tiddlywinks team is having its annual tournament. We buy our tickets from Jeannine Boner and Deloris Brickley, and Jim Stahl takes them at the door. The mammoth sports arena is mobbed. Raymond Frederick, keep those aisles clear! It is final elimination in the tournament and we see Bill Bond and Wayne Cozad locked in a bloody tooth and toenail battle with Nick Spentzos and Ronnie Crawley. Since the light was poor we had to Squint to see Crawley. We notice John Meadows, Phyllis Oden, and Howard Teddy circulating through the crowd busily selling popcorn, peanuts, crackerjacks, etc., to the fans. Gordon Thomas seems to be their best customer. During an exciting play Sally Hoffman accidently spills a coke down Dean Burman's back, but like a gentleman, he forgives her.

During the intermission June Petrie performs a vocal on the hit tune "Why Don't You Believe Me," or "How Did You Know I Told a Lie." Alberta Sweet, Waneta Hensel, and Carolyn McClure stand up and cheer the players as they come back out on the floor and resume play. In a very tense situation when the tiddly wink just missed the cup, the opposing players almost came to blows. Our efficient official, Rex Dolby, parts them with only Spentzos' glasses broken. During this moment of excitement the local radio announcer, Bob Hammel, becomes so charged with enthusiasm that he almost jumps over the guard rail of the huge arena, and Lorna Wolford gets so excited that she topples off the bleachers and injures herself. Ann Paulen rushes up to her with her arms full of bandages and mercurochrome and administers first aid.

Finally Bill Bond tiddles the winning wink into the cup only seconds before the final gun. The crowd goes wild. Standing out above everyone else we see Nancy Carey, Beverley Gressley, Sue Barnhisel and Joyce Ahner yelling and madly waving their arms. Maralyn Sours hands Bill a knife and he cuts down the tiddlywink cup as a trophy of his great achievement.

The overjoyed crowd surges out of the sports arena and most of them go to the favorite local night spot, the Stardust Club. Just then Jo Ellen Fluke, Jo Gaesford, Joyce Bonifas, Betty Logan, Carol Mullarky, and Barbara Mossburg zoom by in their street-size flying saucer. This reminds us that we haven't seen Carol Buzzard and Rosemary Clipp yet, so we ask our guide about them. "Oh," says Bill, "as far as I know, they're still back on Earth. Seems we just couldn't pry them away from Roanoke."

We enter the night club and leave our space helmets with the hat-check girl, Carol Haines. We take a table and watch the dance chorus, composed of Nancy Fahrnow, Nancy Dye, Nancy Stahl, Rosalee Stahl, Rowena Minton, and Alverta Wall. Jack Snover, the waiter, takes our order for radioactive 7-Up (back on Earth we call it champaign). Then the lights dim, the dance band strikes up a tune, and Carol Becker steps to the microphone and sings a song. Norma Stonebraker is playing piano in the band while Sally Shroyer turns the pages of her music and doubles in brass. Dick Morris and Delene Smith walk out onto the dance floor in each other's arms, and Bill Santa politely cuts in on the girl that Larry Blackburn is dancing with. Over at another table, Nancy Weinley, Shirley Steger, and Nicki Schacht are laughing gayly at Fim Morrow's jokes.

It is with heavy heart that we realize that the time has come for us to take our leave. We return to the spaceport where we landed such a short time ago. Sharon Altman, Doris Warkentien, Marilyn Biehl, Barbara Kissinger, and Carlene Beaty come to see us off and to hang leis around our necks. Aloha! Aloha! And as the sun pulls away from the shore, our ship (space ship, that is) slowly sinks in the west, and with it sink

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 2. Enrollment. Ugh. Freshmen looked rather green. Could that be seasickness?

Sept. 3. Rented books. Where did the money go?

Sept. 4. Short periods rest of week but also assignments already.

Sept. 5. Pep session helped. Vikes 13, Marion 0. What's this about a fight after the game? Hum . . .

Sept. 8. Sheila's back. How's Europe?

Sept. 9. What's that "Pop" keeps saying about the Railroad Excursion? Better sign up.

Sept. 10. Marching practice begins for band. Raise those knees high kids!

Sept. 11. Short periods because of the heat. Whew!

Sept. 15. Did everyone notice Rex Dolby with his beautiful black eye? More results of the ball game you know.

Sept. 16. Underclassmen had pictures taken for Modulus. Say cheese!

Sept. 17. Where is everyone? Oh yes, they left at 4:00 A.M. (time out for a yawn) on the Chicago Railroad Excursion. Did you enjoy yourselves?

Sept. 18. Someone catch that Blue Lady; she just went around the corner. Oh, the joys of Greenday again.

Sept. 19. Guess we can't win them all. Vikes 13, Wabash 25. We'll win the next one though.

Sept. 22. Blue Monday except for an exciting Physics test. Hey Diffy, is 25 passing?

Sept. 23. Did you hear the announcement of the meeting with Abe Lincoln in the hall? Wonder what he wants?

Sept. 24. Miss Ellis's bulletin board fell down today. I told you boys not to swing it.

Sept. 25. Flash! Dave "Ballard" Kelsey seen smoking his cigarette during a fire drill.

Sept. 26. Missed on my prediction but it was close. Vikings 9, Warsaw 15.

Sept. 29. Could it be the weatherman's confused? One week we freeze, next it's hot. Do you get it?

Sept. 30. Sharon Young was waltzing down the halls to the strains of "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

OCTOBER

Oct. 1. Junior Class got the biggest shovel of dirt in the ground breaking ceremony. Nice going Steve Moon.

Oct. 2. Formal initiation of Sunshine Society. Can 4th period study hall tell me where Miss Luther got the watermelons for the big feed after school?

Oct. 3. Fifth period history class begging Miss Ellis: Can we please listen to the world series?

Oct. 6. Underclassmen got their pictures back today. Strains of "My, they're cute" and "Don't I look awful?" fill the halls.

Oct. 7. Peace at last for all teachers because today's the last game of the World Series. Yankees won.

Oct. 8. Ann Paulen, what are your Dad's pajamas doing in Diffies' Physics class?

Oct. 9. If anyone is drinking milkshakes in the library, will he please report to the principal's office. That's you, Lou Watson.

Oct. 10. Vikings won their football game 7 to 0 against Ft. Wayne Central.

Oct. 13. Peace reigns again in Wilbern's shorthand class. Reason: no more bubble gum.

Oct. 14. Who swiped the decorations for the religious service. Can you tell me Bob Butler? Broke Columbia's perfect record. Score 13 to 7.

Oct. 16. Did you see Roberta Dolby tearing down those Jenner signs and pasting up Schricker ones in 212?

Oct. 17. We about froze but enjoyed the game anyway. Vikes 13, Rochester 6. Congratulations to our new and old yell leaders!

Oct. 20. We saw three films which are the beginning of our 5 lessons in election laws.

Oct. 21. What! Didn't you do anything special to get in the diary, Marcus? How unusual.

Oct. 22. Bob Bixby fell asleep in Physics class today. This is probably what made us lose our ball game with Plymouth. Score 19-13.

Oct. 23. Vacation for students. No vacation for teachers. Reason? Teachers' Institute.

Oct. 24. Another day of vacation for all but teachers and the choir members who sang for Teachers' Institute at the Quimby in Fort Wayne. How good can you get?

Oct. 27. Are all those sleepy people results of Saturday night's Halloween dance?

Oct. 28. Our first paid auditorium program.

Oct. 29. Dick Morris got his homeroom seat changed. Who do you talk to so much, Dick?

Oct. 30. I wonder if the pair of silk stockings hanging in the typing room belonged to Miss Sees or Mr. Wilbern?

Fort Wayne Central

Huntington took its third win of the season from the Tigers 7 to 0.

In the first quarter the Vikes picked up a Central punt and scored 7 plays later. Bond's pass to Boyle, who went to the 15, set up the T. D. Boyle then went around end for 9 more yards and Stringfellow went over for the score. Carroll kicked the extra point.

Columbia City

The Vikes dumped the Eagles from the undefeated ranks by a 13 to 7 decision in an unusually wet rain.

On the 2nd play after the Vikes kicked off, Cozad stole the ball and went more than 50 yards to score. Carroll kicked the extra point. The Eagles scored in the 2nd quarter with only 3 minutes left to play. In the 3rd quarter Cozad intercepted a pass near the 50 and went to the 24. Boyle advanced the ball and Cozad went over for the tally.

Rochester

Huntington made it 3 straight by winning from the Zebras 13 to 6.

Late in the first quarter Boyle fumbled less than 5 yards from paydirt, but Lancaster recovered on the 3. Bond then hit Handy in the end zone with a quickie pass and Carroll converted.

Near half-time the Zebras scored on a drive from their 36.

On the fourth play of the 2nd half, Boyle went 46 yards for the final score.

Plymouth

The Rockies came from the short end of a 13 to 7 halftime score to win from the Vikes 19 to 13 with 28 seconds left to play.

Midway in the 2nd quarter Plymouth got the first T. D. of the game and plunged the extra point. Huntington came back with a flat pass from Bond to Boyle, who went 58 yards to score. Carroll's extra point tied the game. The Vikes came back to score again about a minute later when Handwork picked up a Rockie fumble and went 40 yards to score.

Late in the 3rd quarter Plymouth got a T. D. after falling on a Viking fumble and got their final T. D. in the 4th.

Peru

The Vikings ended their 1952 football season with a loss of 26 to 0 to the Peru Tigers. This was the first time that Huntington had been held scoreless this season and the loss dropped the Vikes from a fourth place tie to seventh place in C.I.C. standings.

The contest was on an even basis in the first quarter, but in the second, halfback Ray Nix went 76 yards for a T. D. and later a pass from Forshee to Schlemmer made the score 13 to 0 at halftime.

Peru got another six pointer in the third quarter on Lowe's T. D. and got their final score on a pass interception.

Warsaw

The Norsemen won a thriller from a favored Warsaw team 51 to 47 in the second straight to be won from the free throw line.

The Vikes led 11 to 10 in the first quarter and the score was tied at 22 all at halftime with the Vikes going ahead in the third 35 to 33. The Tigers caught the Vikes at 47 all, then Carroll broke up the game with less than 15 seconds to go with a field goal, then added 2 from the foul line to win the game.

Rochester

Burning the nets, the Vikings came through with a 70 to 53 win over the Rochester Zebras.

Leading 21 to 12 at the end of the first quarter, and 43 to 28 at halftime, the Vikes ran up the score to 52 to 39 by the end of the third period and the game ended, Vikings 70, Zebras 53.

Peru

After winning four straight, the Vikings journeyed to Peru only to lose to the Tigers, 58 to 85.

It was Peru all the way, 13 to 10 at the quarter mark, 31 to 23 at halftime, 56 to 38 at the third quarter mark, and 85 to 58 as the game ended.

Alexandria

The Vikes dropped number two to Alex, 56 to 58.

Due to a slow start the Vikes were behind 10 to 11 at the end of the first period and 22 to 29 at halftime. Although the score stood

Oct. 31. We had a snake dance but the evil spirits of Halloween defeated us. Peru 26, Vikings 0.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 3. Ho Hum . . . Another Blue Monday.

Nov. 4. Election day and everyone did his patriotic duty by voting. Julie Norfleet even got kicked out of the voting booth for trying to influence the voters.

Nov. 5. Election results announced. Junior Class did a thriving business on the people who came at 7:00 o'clock in the morning to buy season basketball tickets.

Nov. 6. Miss Ellis and F. T. A. members were gone today. They attended a Convention at North Manchester. Everyone hold his nose! The construction crew broke the sewer line.

Nov. 7. Nice birthday party for Janice Thompson in Shorthand class today. Wish I'd been invited.

Nov. 10. Everyone see the picture of Heinz, Sheila got from Germany today? No wonder all the girls want to go there now.

Nov. 11. A very impressive Armistice Day program. Nice work Radio Workshop.

Nov. 12. Reason for students' good behavior today: Businessmen visited classes in return for BIE day.

Nov. 13. Sally Weyler doesn't always have such a rosy complexion. Just one of the results of last night's Booster Club initiation.

Nov. 14. Poor Pete Sowerwine, won't those two senior girls let you alone?

Nov. 17. First Orchestra practice for the Revue. Sounds pretty good!

Nov. 18. First basketball game tonight. Everybody go!

Nov. 19. Hear all the people talking about the beautiful 75 ft. shot made by Wayne Cozad? Hummer, what are you going to do with those worms at the Biology Club Initiation?

Nov. 20. Now we know what those worms were for. Thanks for relieving the suspense.

Nov. 21. A very exciting ballgame with the Vikes on top over Wabash.

Nov. 24. Those Esquire Girls really add an element to the charm, don't they Chemistry Class?

Nov. 25. An impromptu radio program was given by the Physics class. You really lead an exciting life, don't you, Diffenbaugh?

Nov. 26. Really was close but we did beat that Warsaw team. Warsaw has a good looking German student, don't they Margret Heineking?

Nov. 27. Everyone think of the many things for which they can be thankful this Thanksgiving Vacation.

Nov. 28. Four games in a row won by the Vikes. Defeated Rochester!

DECEMBER

Dec. 1. Winter has come. How do I know? Why we had our first snow today. Watch out! Dodge that snow ball!!!!

Dec. 2. An excellent presentation of Macbeth by a one man cast was given as the second in the series of our paid auditoriums.

Dec. 3. Sorry to hear "Dad" Gordon is in the hospital. Hope he gets well soon!!!

Dec. 4. Chemistry class certainly is exciting. Especially when Larry Blackburn and Joan Fountain get their hands in that black carbon. Black magic, huh?

Dec. 5. Big day for Sophomores. Mr. Vogel was here and they ordered their rings.

Dec. 8. Nick, did you empty the waste basket as Willy told you or did Mr. Johnson see those milkshake cups?

Dec. 9. The tall tales of the Purdue convention are still ringing through our halls. If only the walls had ears!!!

Dec. 10. That lucky choir gets out every sixth period this week to sing at the grade schools. Please don't get sick again, Paul Dolby.

Dec. 11. Applications begin today for the scholarship to go abroad this summer. Suppose I could sneak along with the lucky winner??

Dec. 12. A "rousing" pep session was held before the Alexander game which was very exciting in itself.

Dec. 15. The choir gave a beautiful concert. Nice work, Mr. Slater.

Dec. 16. Films for Economics were upside down, backward and everything else. Could you explain how it happened, Gary Nevious?

Dec. 17. That singing that you hear which has such a "fonny, fonny" accent is just the language classes practicing for caroling in the halls.

Dec. 18. Some jolly people have already left for parts unknown. How do they rate that Florida sun?

Dec. 19. Student body gave tremendous approval on two outstanding Christmas programs featuring the Choir and Masque & Gavel. See you again Jan. 5?????

JANUARY

Jan. 5. Why does everyone always look so glum the first day after vacation?

Jan. 6. Guess R. Handwork showed the Marion team he could make all kinds of baskets, even sloppy ones.

Jan. 7. What a one-sided debate we had at the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y meeting. Naturally no one wants a speed limit do they Hoyt?

Jan. 8. Today was the beginning of the aerial darts mixed tournaments supervised by an admirer of girls phys. ed., Bill Bond.

Jan. 9. What a way to end such an exciting week. No game, no nothin'.

Jan. 12. Why is everyone yelling, "Close down school?" Could it be that 101 kids and six teachers were absent?

Jan. 13. Seniors signed up for their last semester with a song in their hearts?

Jan. 14. Wow!!! Did you see those flashy senior jackets?

Jan. 15. The first semester closes. Did I pass???

Jan. 16. Report card mystery is over, I made it. Whew!!!

Jan. 19. What's that long, long line in the office? Oh my, don't tell me you are on the blacklist. Tut! Tut . . .

Jan. 20. Through the snow we saw the inauguration on television. Was that bell for a fire? Well then why did everyone leave before the ceremony?

Jan. 21. Nicki Schacht, how do you spell February?

Jan. 22. By the senior activity lists a lot of information comes to light. How did Harlan Hummer get on the Honor Society all four years?

Jan. 23. Congratulations to the Senior Class for their variety of gifts.

Jan. 26. What's the story about Madame Curie being locked in the chem closet by Drs. Einstein?

Jan. 27. Really did all you people want retakes of your pictures or did you want out of that boring class?

Jan. 28. We have a demonstration on television operation today. Think that will clear up the snow we had on inauguration day?

Jan. 29. Dance chorus practice continues. Wow look at those legs!!!!!

Jan. 30. I wonder if Einstein could have passed that State Scholarship test. How about it you ten seniors? Ugh . . .

FEBRUARY

Feb. 2. A beautiful sunshiny day for all groundhogs. Santa get back in your tunnel.

Feb. 3. Why does Dick Morris look so strange? Oh that's right, he's all dressed up for the weekly Rotarian meeting.

Feb. 4. Mr. Slater please don't gripe so, these kids have to leave class to have their pictures taken. You want a good yearbook don'cha huh?

Feb. 4. Nicholas Spentzos and Rex Dominos, master hangmen, hung our spacious senior curtain.

Feb. 6. At the Attucks game a fine performance of shooting was seen. Basketball shooting that is.

Feb. 9. The last Modulus queen nominee being announced . . . who is it? Lovely Miss Dave Kelsey and her handsome escort Robert Cutshall!

Feb. 10. Lizz Alexander, never rub your hand over your hair especially if Burkhart and his trusty ink bottle are active.

Feb. 11. Congratulations, Shirley Souders, Modulus Queen of "53"!

Feb. 12. Aptitude tests make one feel like a moron. Get handy with those pegs, kids.

Feb. 13. Everyone should get a good night's rest to . . . enjoy . . .

Feb. 14. A wonderful sweetheart dance!

Feb. 16. Our Mr. Wilbern has returned. We're all very glad to see you back.

Feb. 17. The pre-lenten talk was on "The Source of Our Strength and was very inspiring.

Feb. 18. Shrieks and Ah's penetrate the air. Those poor 1-1's are having medical examinations.

Feb. 19. Diff set the Chem room on fire. Who snitched, you dog?

Feb. 20. This is a tense moment for seniors. Play try-outs tonight!

Feb. 23. Sally Hosler lay awake all night worrying about her driving test tomorrow. If she passes, the rest of us can worry!

Feb. 24. Ferguson, Cutshall, and history just don't seem to mix. At least they were kicked out today. Guess one of us has got to go, huh?

Feb. 25. We're on our way through the Sectional. Beat Warren tonight.

Feb. 26. By looking at the girls you'd assume they were rather tired. Oh I get it, slumber parties!!!

Feb. 27. No school today, Sectional. We're still going and today it was Andrews.

Feb. 28. No doubt about Bond being the hero this year! On to Marion Vikes!!!!

gram today. Sara Sue Stockman was our speaker and did a very good job, too.

Mar. 5. Dear Seniors, this is the last time we sit through that looong process of having the band picture taken. Hooray!!

Mar. 6. Let's all back the Vikes Saturday at the regional. Oh dear and I can hardly talk now!!!!!

Mar. 9. Blaine Robrock seemed to have a nice time at Marion. Wonder if he could tell us the particulars about it.

Mar. 10. Did I say I wanted to be a referee? Well my mind got changed. The names those volley ball teams can think up for you. Oh my!

Mar. 11. Who let that poor, poor dog in auditorium today? It seems Miss Kline is a true dog lover. Agreed?

Mar. 12. In our auditorium program today, Chief Young Bear gave us a clearer and better understanding of the American Indian.

Mar. 13. Watch out!!! Friday the 13th. . . .

Mar. 16. Is this the Monday we've all been looking forward to all over the week end? Oh you joker!?!

Mar. 17. On this St. Pat's day everyone was seeing green, green, and more green. Had two exceptionally wonderful auditorium programs today.

Mar. 18. Results of Vike-Future Vike game: Oh well they'll have a good team next year. They'd have to be good to beat those old Vikes!

Mar. 19. What did your aptitude reveal, Enos? Oh you say you're going to be an engineer? But Pat . . .

Mar. 20. Calling senior play cast: Party at Ann's tonight.

Mar. 23. Dress up? Not dress up? Will someone please make up my mind?

Mar. 24. Dress rehearsal tonight. Oh kids, aren't these outfits a scream? Ha Ha.

Mar. 25. Congratulations Carolyn Van Dine on a wonderful job. We're proud to have you as our Senior Queen.

Mar. 26. Today we vote for Honor Society. Heck, Jim, I don't care if you stuff the ballot box, as long as you vote for me.

Mar. 27. A very fine performance by the Manchester choir. One of our student teachers was featured as soloist. Notice?

Mar. 30. Jenny B., who was it that said, "Thou shalt not have parties on school time"?

Mar. 31. On Junior Town Meeting the problem was, about parent-child relationships. Honor Society announced today. Congrats, kids!

APRIL

Apr. 1. On your toes teachers because there are plenty of fools around to trick you.

Apr. 2. A beautiful film, "I Beheld His Glory," climaxes our Holy Week services.

Apr. 3. Out of school for Good Friday.

Apr. 6. The galley proof of the Modulus came today. No wonder the staff's gone wild. Let me see, too!

Apr. 7. As we have done all year, we again plow our way through the congestion formed at the lockers of S. Steger, S. Barnhisel, N. Weinley, and J. Juillerat.

Apr. 8. The seniors were enlightened today in guidance period on "Choosing Your Marriage Partner." At least I think it was for seniors, the freshmen looked so bewildered!!

Apr. 9. The Hi-Y convention for the district was held here today. After this informative workshop our meetings should really be superb!

Apr. 10. The Indiana Central College Choir gave us a splendid musical program today. Too bad they're college girls. Right, boys?

Apr. 13. Nothing today but time which continues to march on.

Apr. 14. Wonder how many kids will sleep tonight? Not me! Those grade cards come out tomorrow. Oh, happy day!!!

Apr. 15. Our program this Wednesday is group singing. Poor Mr Slater, when you think of the talent he's working with . . . Oh well, it was fun!

Apr. 16. All those little kids you saw running around yesterday are members of the Junior Varieties cast. Better go to see it tonight or tomorrow!

Apr. 17. Gonna rush out to the track meet after school. Can anyone tell me who the "star" is this year? I see, they're all good.

Apr. 20. Preliminary enrollment for next year. Do I have to think of that already? Dear me.

Apr. 21. Why doesn't someone knock one of the Brandt twin's front teeth out? They make me so-o-o-o confused . . .

Apr. 22. Like I said before, they're trying to marry off the seniors. The film today was "Are You Ready for Marriage?" Who knows????

Apr. 23. The Defiance, Ohio, High School Choir entertained us today. OK boys, I know these aren't college girls, but please!!!

Apr. 24. We saw "Naughty Marietta today. I have one question. Is that what happens to you when you're naughty? Hum-m-mm.

40 to 47 as the third quarter ended, the Vikings didn't give up and fought within two points of the Tigers as the game ended.

Hartford City

The Norsemen just couldn't hit and the Airedales couldn't miss as they racked up a 51 to 37 victory over the Vikes.

Hartford City led 18 to 10 first quarter, 31 to 18 halftime, 43 to 29 at the end of the third quarter, and 51 to 37 as the game ended.

Fort Wayne South

The Vikings went to Fort Wayne and hung up a 53 to 43 victory at the expense of the Archers.

The Archers led 11 to 10 at the quarter mark and 23 to 22 at halftime. The Vikes went to work and went ahead 33 to 30 by the end of the third quarter, and really turned on the heat in the fourth to end the game at 53-43, Vikings.

New Years Day Tourney

In the afternoon, Central beat Auburn 67 to 55 in the first game, and the Vikes lost to Elkhart 53 to 68 in the second.

In the consolation game the Vikings took Auburn 56 to 48. Auburn was ahead at the end of the first quarter 18 to 15 but by halftime the Vikes led 33 to 28. The Vikes kept right on rolling and were ahead at the end of the third quarter 42 to 36, and as the game ended, the board read 56 to 48 in favor of the Vikings.

Central won the final game 54 to 48.

Marion

The Vikes started the Marion game in fine style and built up the score to 17 to 11 by the end of the first quarter. Marion rallied in the second period to close the gap at 29 all, but Handwork put the Vikes out in front 31 to 29 as the half ended.

By the end of the third quarter the Vikings led 48 to 39, and although Marion again recovered on a determined scoring drive in the fourth quarter, the Vikes won 59 to 58.

Muncie Burris

The Vikings came through with a 55 to 50 victory over the Burris Owls and made their season record 8 and 4.

The Vikes held a lead of 18 to 11 at the quarter mark and 35 to 30 at halftime. They increased their lead to 46 to 38 by the end of the third quarter, and the game ended 55 to 50.

Elwood

The Vikes were with Elwood all the way but in the final two minutes the Panthers slipped ahead to win 57 to 55.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 18 to 12 in favor of Elwood and at halftime the Panthers led by one point, 20 to 19. The Vikings pulled ahead one point in the third period to lead 41 to 40. The score read 52 to 51 with two minutes to go. Then the Panthers dropped in six while the Vikes got only three.

Decatur

Although the Yellow Jackets held a 12 point lead at the end of the third quarter, the Vikes tied it up at 54 all with less than 25 seconds to go and then went on to win 61 to 60 in an overtime.

It was Decatur's game all through the first three quarters. They led 14 to 10 at the quarter mark and 33 to 20 at halftime. The third quarter score read 43 to 31, but the game ended 61 to 60 in favor of the battling Vikings who didn't give up when the chips were down.

Fort Wayne Central

The Central Tigers dealt the Vikes their sixth defeat of the season 62 to 45.

The Tigers fought to a 11 to 7 lead in the first period and were ahead 27 to 21 by halftime. By the third quarter Central had increased its margin to 44 to 34 and came through with 18 points in the last to end the game with a 62 to 45 victory.

Tipton

Although the Blue Devils took the Vikes 76 to 71, they had to earn every point and fight off a Viking rally in the closing minutes to do it.

The Blue Devils were ahead at the quarter mark 14 to 13 and increased their lead to 37 to 32 by halftime.

As the third quarter ended, the score was 55 to 49, and the game ended 76 to 71.

Apr. 27. Bob Butler goes to register for the draft. Lucky, lucky Uncle Sam!

Apr. 28. Out to see the track meet again! Don't stop me now!

Apr. 29. Who told me nothing was going to happen today? Shall I enumerate????

Apr. 30. Tonight is P.T.A. At last the best class officers are going to be introduced. That's right. It's senior night!

MAY

May 1. Lovely May baskets made by the hard working Mary White Guild adorned all the teachers' rooms. Nice work, girls!

May 4. Nineteen days till we get out. Am I anxious? Well . . .

May 5. We again had a lovely religious program given by Masque and Gavel.

May 6. Can't wait to see what the Will and Prophecy says about me. Honest kids, I've led a good life!

May 7. No rest for the wicked, goes the saying. Guess that means everyone in this school.

May 8. Curses foiled again, those exams begin next week. Last chance to fool my teachers.

May 11. All respond with a huge sigh of relief as we hear an announcement about the closing of the school year.

May 12. Why do the Juniors run around with such suspicious actions? Oh, I see, Reception secrets, huh?

May 13. New Senior Tri-Hi-Y officers will be installed tonight. This should insure smooth running by next year.

May 14. Please don't forget to pay homage to Roger Handwork. Today is this guy's birthday.

May 15. A full schedule today. Got to show off all my achievement medals, certificates, ribbons, etc. Aren't you kids jealous?

May 17. Baccalaureate today. Don't those parents look sad? That's funny because the Seniors look so happy.

May 18. No seniors around today except for some of those lucky ones taking tests! Tut, tut, kids.

May 19. Willy said to expect rain today. Judge for yourselves.

May 20. My I hate to turn in that Health book but it looks as if everyone else is, so here goes. Aw shucks, I don't really mind.

May 21. The Seniors thank the Juniors for a wonderful reception. The Will and Prophecy, read by Jane Bell and Jerry Ball respectively, were the most . . . well anyway they were!!!

May 22. Commencement, our final achievement, brings our ship safely to dock. May the sea of memories flow on for the future.

Maralyn Sours leaves still trying to sell tickets to "Old Doc."

Nick Spentzos wills his way with Jennie B. to her freshman home room.

Nancy Stahl leaves still trying to run the cheering block.

Jim Stahl bestows his big mouth and dry jokes on anyone who can take it.

Rosalee Stahl leaves her seat in Weiford's homeroom to an up and coming freshman.

Emma Stenzel leaves her stencils to the Commercial Department.

Sara Sue Stockman bequeaths her soothing voice to Gerry Zahn and Carolyn Reynolds.

Norma Stonebraker leaves her stones to build a braker and her sheet music to Steve Moon.

Alberta Sweet wills her bookkeeping to all Commercial majors.

Howard Teddy bequeaths his fighting spirit to the future Vikes.

Gordon Thomas leaves just as he was getting a good start.

Don Updike parts with Mr. Gerdes trying to find someone to run the new mimeograph machine. (Gift of the Class of "53"!)

Carolyn Van Dine leaves her sunny ways to Sonny.

Shirley Vardaman wills her place in the majorette line to any one who likes the cold.

Jack Walknetz leaves his romantic part in the Senior Play to Tom Glenn—what will Puff say???

Alverta Wall wills her ideal study hall habits to John Lind.

Doris Ware leaves for nobody knows "Ware."

Doris Warkentien wills her ability to stick to one man to Judy Woods.

Nancy Weinley leaves still talking a blue streak.

Charlotte Williams wills her ability to get married to B. C.

Ernie Williams gives his knowledge of New Jersey to Dale Ware.

Norma (Seymore) Williams leaves the boys in fourth period Physics class.

Lorna Wolford wills her poise to Carolyn Lesh.

After writing and signing this great document "in blood" we depart from our ship of memoirs in search of more "knowledge and perseverance."

Crispus Attucks

The Vikes lost 92 to 54 to a smooth looking Attucks team. The controlling height and deadly accuracy of Bryant who got 38 and Jones who dumped in 19 were too much for the battling Vikings.

The Attucks team led 26 to 14 at the quarter mark and 46 to 27 at halftime.

The third quarter score was 63 to 40 and in the fourth period Attucks got 29 to the Vikes 14 to end the game at 92 to 54.

Logansport

After getting beat the night before by Attucks, the Vikes, looking every bit as good as Attucks, handed the Berries an 81 to 63 defeat. Crawley had 21, Handy got 20, and Bond hit for 18.

The Vikes jumped into a 20 to 12 first quarter lead and racked 'em up to make it 44 to 32 by halftime.

The third quarter score was 63 to 50 and the Vikes went on to win in fine style 81 to 63.

Plymouth

The Vikes traveled to Plymouth and came out on the short end of a 65 to 59 decision.

The Rockies jumped into a 20 to 13 lead by the end of the first quarter but the Vikes pulled ahead and led 37 to 34 at halftime.

At the three-quarter mark the Rockies again were in front 49 to 48 and the game ended 65 to 59. Bond was high with 16.

Auburn

The Norsemen lost to the Red Devils 58 to 52 to close their season with a ten and ten record.

Auburn led at the quarter mark 12 to 11 and increased the lead to 31 to 27 by halftime.

The Red Devils had a margin of seven points, 45 to 38 when the fourth quarter started. They increased their lead to 49 to 40 but the Vikes tied it up at 49 all with about 3 minutes to go, but Auburn pulled ahead again, this time to stay, and won 58 to 52.

Warren

In the first game of sectional play the Vikes defeated Warren's Lightning Five 68 to 59.

The Vikings took a 17 to 12 first quarter lead and increased it to 38 to 27 by halftime. The score stood 50 to 37 at the end of the third quarter and the game ended 68 to 59.

Andrews

The Vikings then won from the Andrews Cardinals 80 to 44 in a really rough and tumble game.

The Vikes led 25 to 7 at the quarter mark and 41 to 25 at halftime. The third quarter score was 56 to 37 and the Vikes hit for 24 while Andrews got only 7 in the fourth to end the game 80 to 44.

Clear Creek

Although the Bulldogs tried to stall to keep the Vikes from running up a big score, they still lost by 19 points.

The Vikings ran up a 10 to 4 score at the quarter mark and led at halftime 27 to 16.

At the end of the third period the score stood 33 to 21 and the game ended 44 to 25 in the Vikings favor.

Monument

Monument led all through the game and the Vikings were forced to go into an overtime before they could come out on top.

The Greyhounds took a 15 to 10 lead and at halftime were still ahead to the tune of 20 to 17.

The Vikings fans were waiting for the Vikes to break loose, but it was all they could do to keep up. Monument retained the lead and the score stood 29 to 27 at the three quarter mark, but the Vikes caught the Greyhounds at the end of the regulation time at 36 all.

In the overtime Monument played for one shot, and with four seconds to go Glendenning drove in and was fouled by Stringfellow. He made his last free throw and Carroll took the ball and threw it half way down the floor to Crawley who shot and missed but Bond's rebound was good for the win 38 to 37.

Mississinewa

In the Regional the Vikings lost to the Mississinewa Indians 49 to 57. Although the Vikes lost, they wore down the Indians and it showed in their final game.

Although the Indians led 13 to 7 at the quarter mark, the Vikes came right back to take over the situation at halftime to the tune of 25 to 23.

The Indians took over the scoring in the third period and led 38 to 37 and went on to win 57 to 49 hitting for 19 while the Vikes collected 12.
